JEFF SHORT, KRIS COULTER — EDITORS

A high school education consists of more than just what is learned in a classroom. Participation in organization, sports, and other extracurricular activities also contribute a great deal to a person's education. People learn some of the most valuable concepts of life just by interacting with others. If there is one thing high school has, it's a lot of people coming together to live and work with each other, making

Short But Sweet

Wyandot Co. Fair Vacation

Laura Wilson was one of the DECA members to volunteer her time during the fair.

Although the fair vacation was shortened again this year, much happened during the span of the fair.

A few of the school organization used the fair to raise much needed funds. Tri-Masque and Thespian members worked in the Star Theater tent and members Lynn Helge, Doug Berg, and others brightened faces of youngsters by painting clown faces on them. DECA also took advantage of the opportunity by selling refreshments and announcements on the public address system.

Senior Dick Leonard entered his unusual hobby in the fair this year — CHICKENS!

The band suffered through another "scorcher" on Saturday during the parade as temperatures climbed into the 70's. Wednesday's concert with other area high school bands was more comfortable and drew a larger crowd.

The fascination of the amusement rides was evident as lines of high school students formed by some of the more frightening rides.

Just as in high school, the excitement of the fair will always be within us, and the start will be much awaited.

Many Home Ec. Special and FFA members worked on this years FFA display.

A yearly competitor, Dennis Trautwein checks his entrance carefully before the auction.

FFA and 4-H member Scott Stansbery grooms his cattle before showing them.

Sophomores Bill Kline, Jerry Frey, and friends discuss the days events in the swine barn.

Dress Forward Dress Back, Dress Orange Dress Black!

Throughout Spirit Week and the year, the cheerleaders were busy making signs to boost spirit.

Mrs. Leeth's third period English Comp. Class transformed the room into RAM LAND.

Frank Winter and Bill Miller proudly display the results of Mrs. Leeth's third period class.

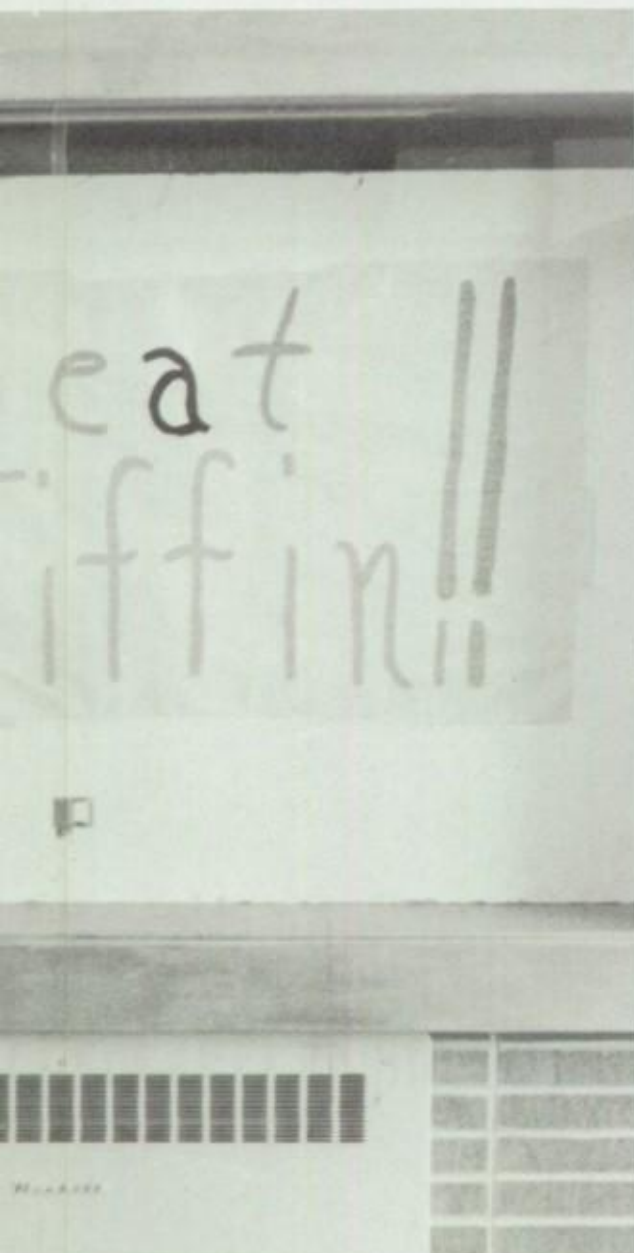

With the help of the cheerleaders and a few spirited students, this years Spirit Week was a great success. The weeks unusual dress was successful as proved at the Homecoming Game.

A spirited rivalry developed between all three classes, b only for the good of football team.

Mrs. Leeth's and Mrs. Spitler's English class were involved in a room decorating competition. As expected, Mrs. Leeth's seniors won, but not easily. This competition was one of many to make Spirit Week successful and fun for all.

"Clownin' for a Win," was the motto of cheerleaders Sue Quinn and Jean Eippert.

Although a familiar style of dress, June Shumaker Terri Lambrite was one of the many seniors to went all-out for clash day.

Not wanting to be outdone by upperclassmen, these sophomore girls dressed appropriately for 60's day.

Steve Brown was in "over his head" during Spirit Week. His pom-pom was a popular hat on hat day.

Very active this year, the DECA club became very rowdy during the Homecoming Parade.

Sensing a victory, the football team was very wound up during the parade.

The Class of 80's finest — Chris Chandler, Angie Kinley, Queen Lisa Lee, Sue Quinn, and Brenda Frisch.

A Queen, A Victory, And A New Tradition

DEATH MARCH — Dale Rowe brings the death of Tiffin's victory nearer.

The Queen. After a tough decision, Lisa Lee was chosen 1979 Homecoming Queen by the student body. Lisa was given a bouquet of flowers, a tiara, and the game football by student council president Paul Lozano.

The Victory. After a spirited week of activities, the football team defeated Tiffin Columbian 17-6. The Homecoming Dance followed, with the joy of the victory lasting into the next week.

The Tradition. With a suggestion from Lynn Helge, the first annual Homecoming Parade took place this year. Handled by the Student Council, the Band, Football team, DECA Club, the cheerleaders, and the crowd braved the drizzle and the cold in hopes of producing a victory the following night. As the festive crowd continued down Sandusky Ave., many cheers came from the lighted porches. This year's parade and spirit week began a successful and enjoyable tradition.

A crushing victory for Tiffin, and a victory kiss for Lisa Lee from Sue Quinn.

Fans enjoy the warmth of the bonfire after attending a rainy Homecoming Parade.

Doin' It Together

Jr./Sr. Play

Front Row — Frank Winter, Bill Moore, Sean Lalik, Pat Merrick, Genny Lucas, Bill Miller.
Back Row — Sandy Cheney, Mrs. Warfel, Wayne Dennis, Barry Miller, Kris Coulter, Carol Doran, Bruce Voorhels, Sue Quinn, Doug Berg

Sandy Cheney, the maid, listens to Sean telling her to bring him some chocolate cake.

Pat Merrick refuses to have a boxing match in her living room.

Lucy (Carol Doran) looks down her nose at Cordy after being told to put her hat on her cousin.

A snobby Mrs. Duke (Sue Quinn) snaps back at Mr. Biddle (Sean Lalik).

"I told you to be sure to stay away from his left, Charlie."

Sean explains the secrets of life and happiness to Barry.

After knocking him out, Sean helps Doug Berg up.

This year, for the first time, the Jr. and Sr. class plays were combined. This was done to have an even better quality play and to leave time for a musical every year. What resulted was what some say was one of the best plays ever put on at USHS.

The Happiest Millionaire is Mr. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, a very fun-loving person with many peculiar habits and hobbies. He loves alligators, prize-fighting, his Bible Club, and swearing. But most of all Biddle loves his home, family, and friends. He is very concerned about the fact that his three children are growing up and want to leave the nest.

The action of this play takes place between September, 1916 and June, 1917 in the Biddle home, 2104 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A nervous Richard Shumaker approaches the lane despite the noise and confusion.

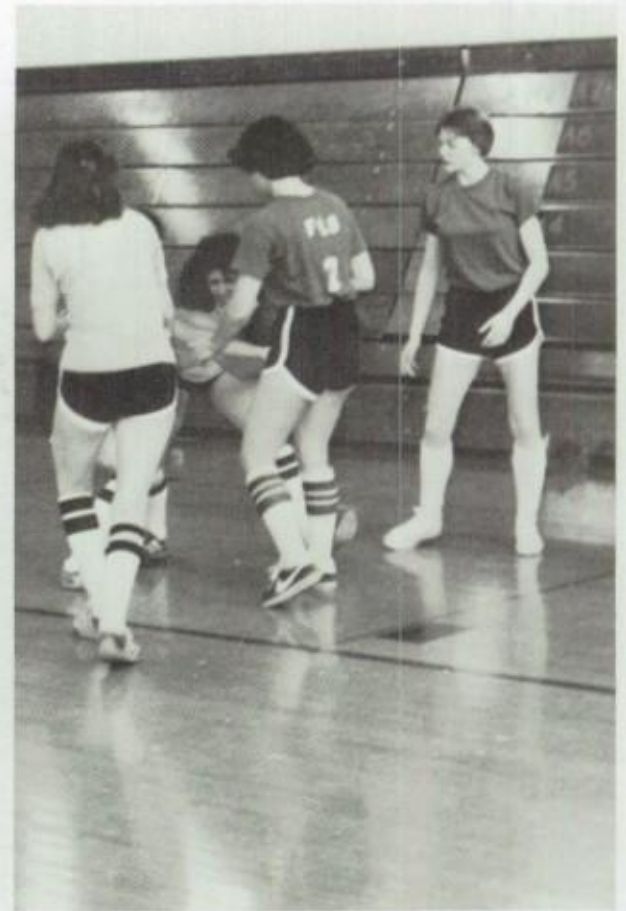

Janet Grabowski and Julie Kuenzli take a break between games.

A perfect style for a jumpshot is demonstrated by Sharon Nachbar.

Dave Powell, a member of the Shieks, gets off a tough shot from the foul line.

Determination and the will to win made the girls' games more interesting.

The Grabowski sisters, Martha and Janet, face off at mid-court.

Tough defense became the key to a victory. Joy Wilson demonstrates.

An experienced player, Julie Kuenzli was feared by her opponents.

The hot shooting of Deanna Smalley gave the Party Pak their first defeat.

Towering high over his opponent, Dave Frey scores an easy basket.

This is the cast of "Oklahoma" whose hard work produced one of the finest musicals at USHS.

Laurey (Rhonda Kuenzli) gazes dreamily into space imagining "the shiney, little surrey with the fringe on the top."

The boys wait for Aunt Eller's reaction when she looks into the "little wonder."

Will (Jeff Kin) gladly says goodbye to the peddler man (Bill Moore).

Laurey anxiously waits for Curly (Bruce Voorheis) to bid on her hamper which Aunt Eller (Alison Walton) is auctioning off.

Out of Laurey's dreams are these show girls and other dancers who were all in the ballet.

Rather than explaining it, Will demonstrates an "Oklahoma Hello" to Ado Annie (Wendy Hamner).

Everyone celebrates after Curly and Laurey's wedding by singing "Oklahoma."

Perfect . . .

... Takes Practice

The musical "Oklahoma!" was presented this year. The show, directed by Mr. Allen Walton, followed the USHS tradition by being a very fine production. Mr. Richard Davis, music director, and Mr. James McDonald, directing the orchestra, played an important part in developing the show. Also Mr. Stephen Hilderbrand, choreographer, had a key role in the success.

Bruce checks his gun to make sure it will go off "on cue."

They may be singing low and softly now but it builds up to a spine-tingling climax.

Dream Laurey (Sue Quinn) has come down the aisle to marry her sweetheart, Dream Curly (Jeff Short).

Everything is going just fine for Curly and Laurey as their friends escort them to the train station.

A jealous Ado Annie gets her revenge on Gertie (Liz Johns) who flirted with her man Will.

Mr. Walton prepares the cast for its first practice with the scenery.

Orchestra: Loretta Newell, Chris Chandler, Jeni Eyestone, Phil Lortz, Kevin Newell, Theresa Summit, Sue Dillon, Barb Myers, Mike Walton, Hank Hale, Beth Stein

Show girl Laura Russell sits patiently while Gail puts the beauty spots on for her.

Rhonda must sit still so Mrs. Pool can put the make-up on.

Sandy fixes her hair while Lisa Wilt fluffs her petticoat in preparation for the cast picture.

Breaks are few and far between and are not wasted. Most people use them to sit and relax or drink something.

Terri Schley and friends begin work on the hallway. It became a romantic tunnel-of-love for prom ones.

It's not that bad! Jeanne Elppert, Deanna Smalley, and Joan Franz hide during Friday's work day.

Karen Long and Wendy Hamner begin work on the courtyard. Upper Sandusky in the past was brought back to life.

The finished courtyard gave the younger people insight to Upper in the past and memories to the older people.

Paul Giacalone threatens Scott Vogel and Todd Garber to get their work done.

1980 Junior/Senior Prom

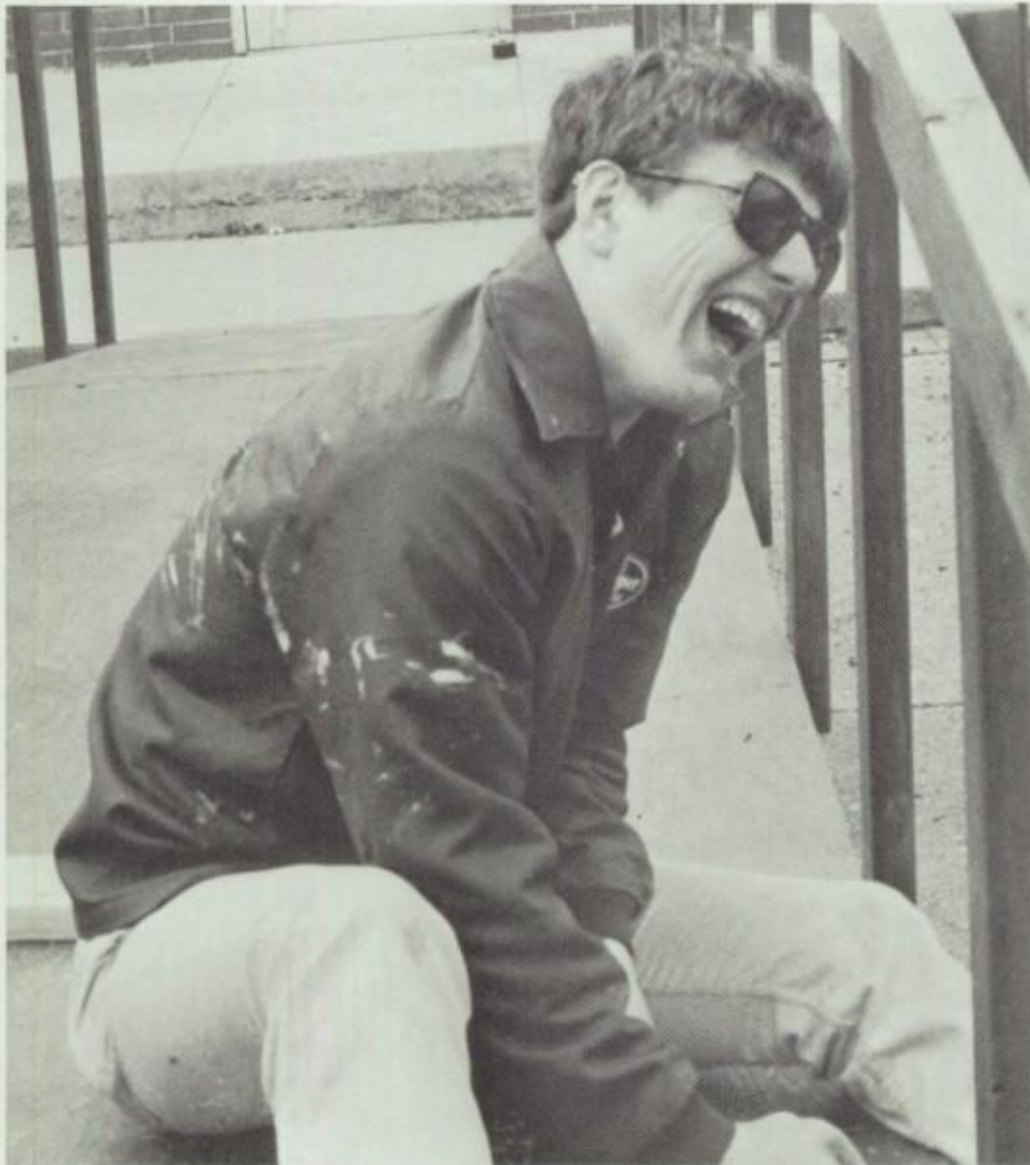

"Memories"

Mr. Lahoski and Kathy Solacoff make a final inspection before the tables are set up.

The decorative lighting of the courtyard was in part due to Lisa Clinger and Jackie Riedlinger.

Building the bridge proved to be a lot of fun to Dave Powell. The bridge was located in the courtyard.

"Junior" Muscle-power provided the entrance with a new look. A swingset also enhanced the entrance.

The Past Relived

The entrance was transformed into a schoolhouse and playground.

Brett Swihart waits for his new partner for the Grand March.

Carla Baker reluctantly prepares for the final line of the Grand March.

Beneath the beauty of this ballroom is our own U.S.H.S. gymnasium.

Prom royalty this year was Jon Yeater and Laura Crow.

Sophomore server Linnette Constein became a naughty nineties girl for the prom.

'Sythic server Bruce Smythe and assistant Janet Schilling perform as the guests enter. Seeing with his eyes closed is one of Bruce's specialties.

Jon Walton, Kim Swartz, and Steve Billeg take time out during the formal dance for a cup of punch.

Jane Vogel, Sean Lalik, Petra Pribnow, and Doug Elgin enjoy the scenery of the courtyard.

Dan Glerhart and Grace Garza take a breather before the dance begins.

Brenda Swihart anxiously waits for a date to arrive.

This year (1979-1980) proved to be an exciting and tense year. Internationally our country faced many problems — economically and politically. The American dollar was worth record low amounts in Japan and almost all European countries. Gold and silver skyrocketed to alltime highs (800 and 40 dollars/ounce, respectively). The stock market celebrated the 50th anniversary of the crash of the stockmarket with no major trouble. A 20% prime interest rate made it nearly impossible to borrow money. These high rates were supposed to offset the 18% inflation rate of 1979, but, unfortunately, it led to high unemployment and set the country into a recession, making it difficult for 1980 grads to find a summer job.

Politically, the pride of the country was severely damaged. The Russian invasion of Afghanistan threatened the Persian Gulf, which is important to our shipment of oil. This invasion was met with several different actions by the United States, and it also caused a major controversy. A grain embargo and boycott of the 1980 Olympics (which were held in Moscow) were a few of the major actions taken by the United States, and the possibility of the reinstitution of the draft registration was the controversy.

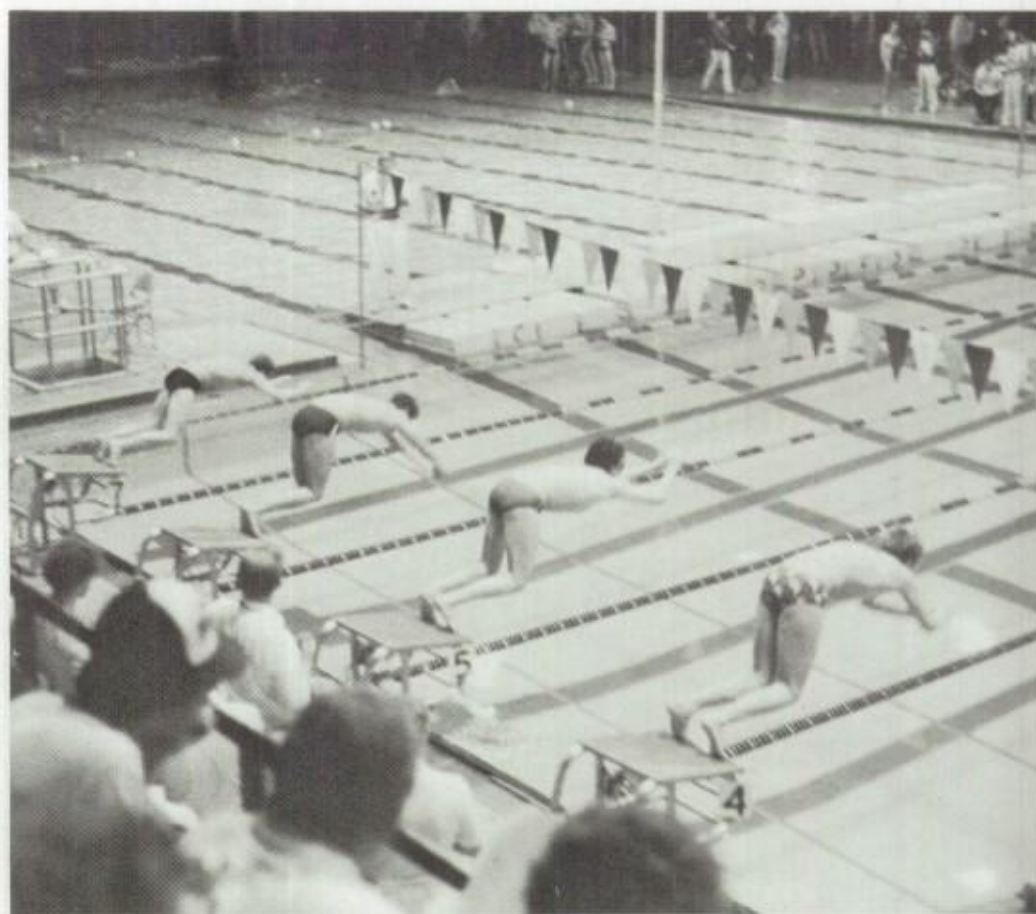

A major problem that our country faced this past year was the Iranian Crisis. Although many unpleasant and embarrassing memories resulted from this, it did have one good effect on our country — national unity. Daily display of flags, and radio and television time for the playing of our national anthem resulted in a restoration of national pride and respect which our country has lacked for several years.

What Happened? The Year In Review

On the lighter side, the American Hockey Team gained a "Cinderella" victory at the 1980 Winter Olympic Games which were held at Lake Placid, New York. Other American standouts were Eric Heiden in speedskating, and world champion pairs figure skaters Tai Bablonia and Randy Gardner. These two were gold medal hopefuls, but a last minute injury prevented the two from competing. The first transcontinental balloon flight was accomplished in May of 1980.

Other newsworthy events of 1979 and 1980 are the draft-Kennedy movement. This movement was launched in the fall of 1979, but his popularity declined greatly during the presidential primaries in 1980. Recognition of the Peoples Republic of China brought a huge trade market to the United States, and, especially, to Ohio.

This year proved to be a year of patience and testing of strength for the United States. As in the past we are facing it with courage and strength and proving that the United States is the NUMBER ONE NATION IN THE WORLD!

A member of the USHS swim team, Steve Brown (second from right) takes-off at the District Swim Meet held at BGSU. Other swimteam members were Paul Stephan and J.D. Compston.

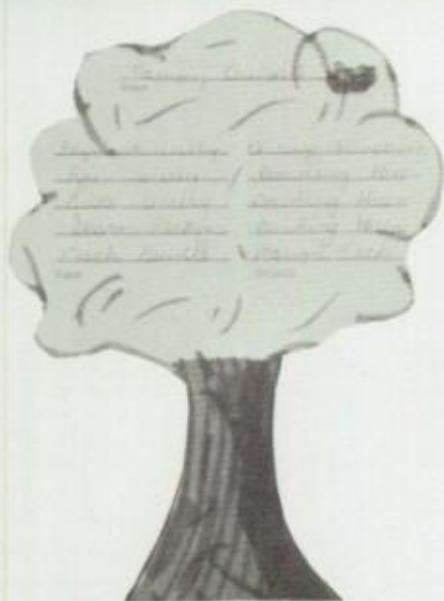

Angeline helpers this year were Angie Kinley, Brenda Adkins, Jeanette Ten Eyck, Marie Laudick, Ken Kin, Blaiz Saltzman, Dan Warfel, Terri Lambrite, and Wayne Dennis.

Games, Prizes, And A Preview Of Colleges

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors alike participated in college day.

Randy Best and Ken Kin stand by the showcase of prizes that the students could win.

For the first time this year, a college day was set-up by the guidance department. This provided a preview of colleges and different games in which the students could win paraphernalia provided by different colleges and branches of the service. Many of the students participated in the events and everyone thought the project to be worthwhile.

Even the teachers were able to dig out their alumni clothes for college day.

Coordinator of the college day, Mrs. Sankey proudly displays her college shirt.

Clerk of Courts Lyle Gottfried and Wayne Traxler add up the court's income.

City Auditor Jon Walton takes the job over from his counterpart for the day.

County Recorder Edna Huffman teaches Terry Ratliff how to "search the deed."

Discussing taxes and property assessment were County Auditors Rick North and Deb Grundtisch.

Government Day

County Commissioners Dan Debolt, Laurie Deckler, Karen Van Scoy, and Rick Smith.

Park Commissioner Steve Brown (center) meets with the Park Board (Steve Howard, Larry Cla-baugh, Ken Kin, Phil Williams, and Brett Swihart).

The Planning Commission discussed the day's events after meeting with the mayor.

City Council (Scott Stansbery, Richard Zohoury, Sue Quinn, Brenda Adkins, Karina Frey, Janet Grabowski) meets with Mayor Laura Crow (center).

Steve McCarthy and Deputy Sheriff Rall enter the courtroom to testify in a case.

A Welcomed Break: Assemblies

Karen Bower struts proudly as a chicken during the hypnosis assembly.

What a beautiful tongue! Sharon Nachbar proudly displays it for the school.

Coleen Thompson checks the blood pressure of Lisa Wilt as it is changed through hypnosis.

Carol Doran gives her interpretation of a sprouting flower.

Lisa Clinger sings one of many solos during the Christmas assembly.

The Stage Band gave us an exciting finale to the Christmas assembly.

The result of the power of suggestion is demonstrated by the junior class.

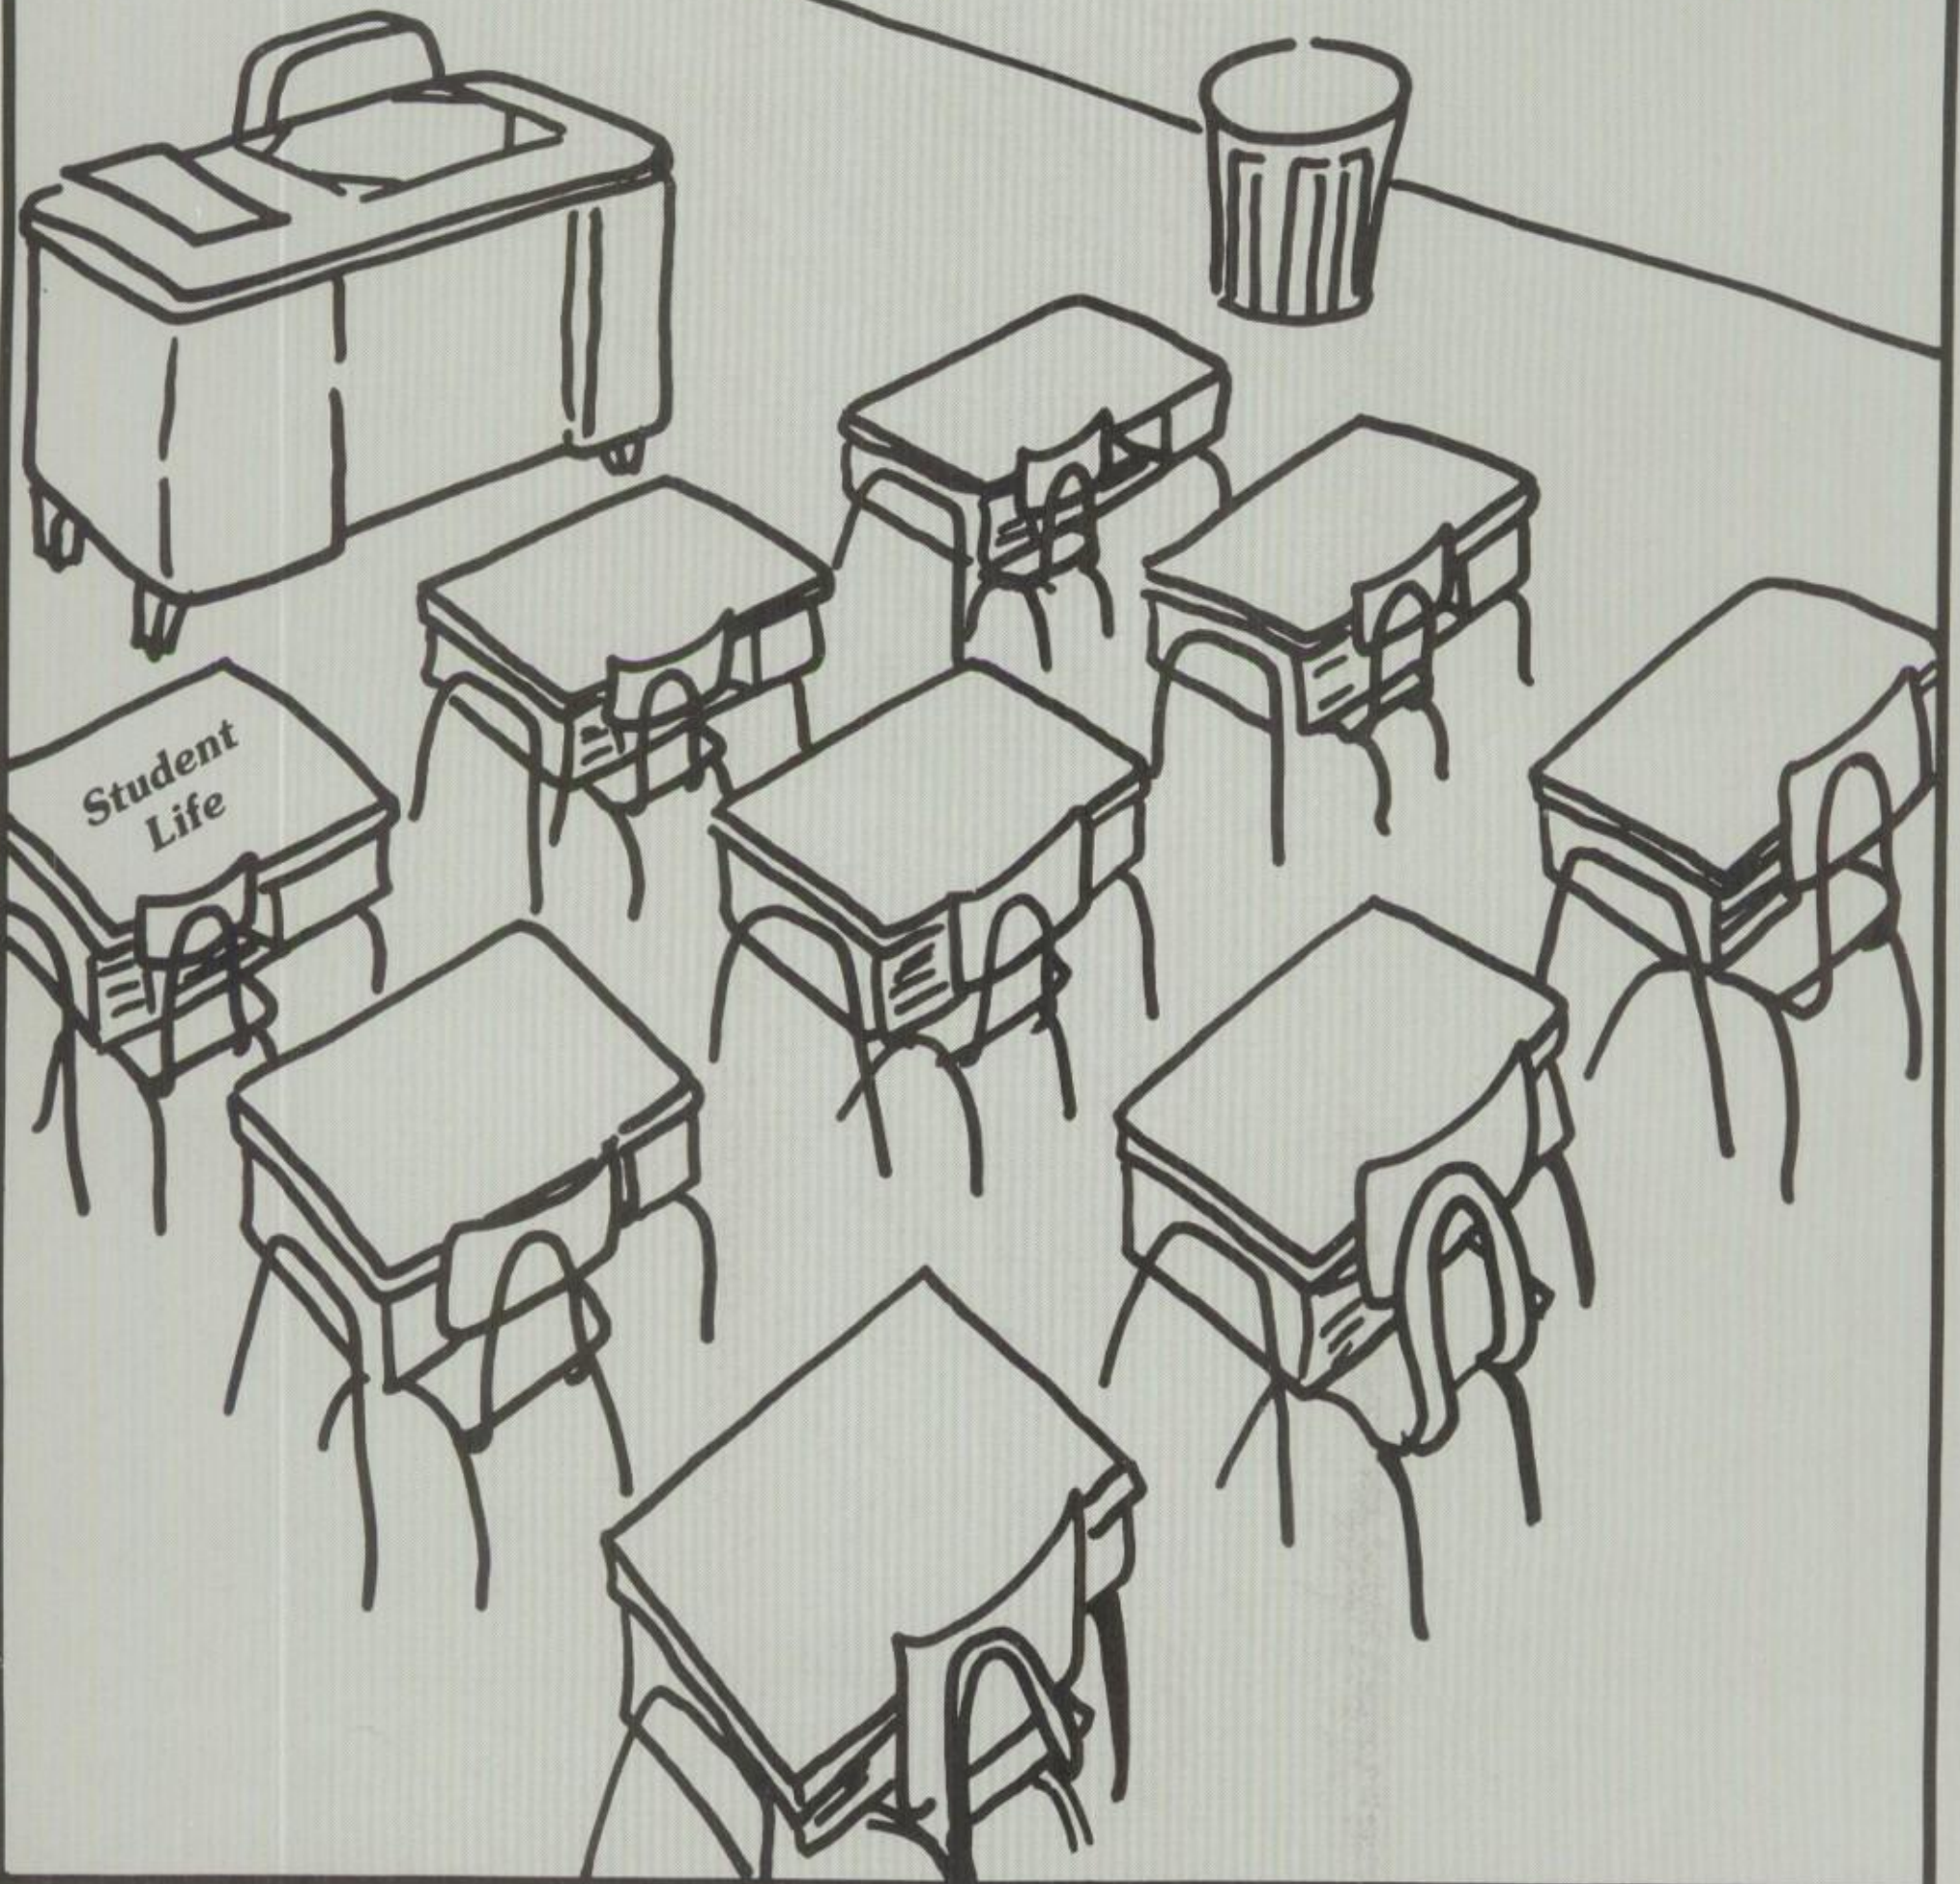

The Air Force Band provided an assembly which was enjoyed by everyone.

Responsible for setting up the assemblies were Brad Batton, Kevin Collins, Brett Swihart, Jack Leslie, Tony Turley, and advisor Mr. Neiswander.

SENIORS

A black and white photograph of a young woman with dark, shoulder-length hair, smiling and sitting on a concrete ledge. She is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and light-colored jeans. Behind her is a wall with horizontal siding and a dark wooden railing above it. The words "THE BOSS" are spray-painted in large, bold, black letters on the wall. The bottom of the image shows a brick wall and some grass.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Brett Swihart, President; Karina Frey, Treasurer; Terri Lambrite, Vice-President; Carla Baker, Secretary.

Finally!!!

"Finally!" — That is the universal saying of seniors, but not one of them would ever trade the memories of the last twelve years.

Our Senior year (1979-1980) will be a landmark in the history of the school and the nation. For the first time in more than a decade, Mr. Lee Kirkland will not be principal, and there will be no more "Mr. Barker's Government class."

This year is also full of grief and hostility — the Iran Crisis.

This year has seen good times though — the prom, "Oklahoma", and all the other school events. Hopefully, these good times will be remembered.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS: Claudio Corante, Petra Pribnow, and Thais Bernardi. Absent is Leah Hall.

Once again our community and school were fortunate enough to have exchange students. These students come to us through the Youth for Understanding Program. This program enables students to travel and receive an education in foreign countries. These students not only learn while abroad, but they also teach their new friends and classmates about the different customs, beliefs, and governments of their home countries. The Youth for Understanding Program involves approximately fifty countries, and since its beginning in 1951, it has given over 50,000 students to learn and travel abroad.

Petra Pribnow, who is staying with Anne Leser, is from West Germany. Petra has become very involved in activities at U.S.H.S. She participated in volleyball, track and in the Foreign Language Club.

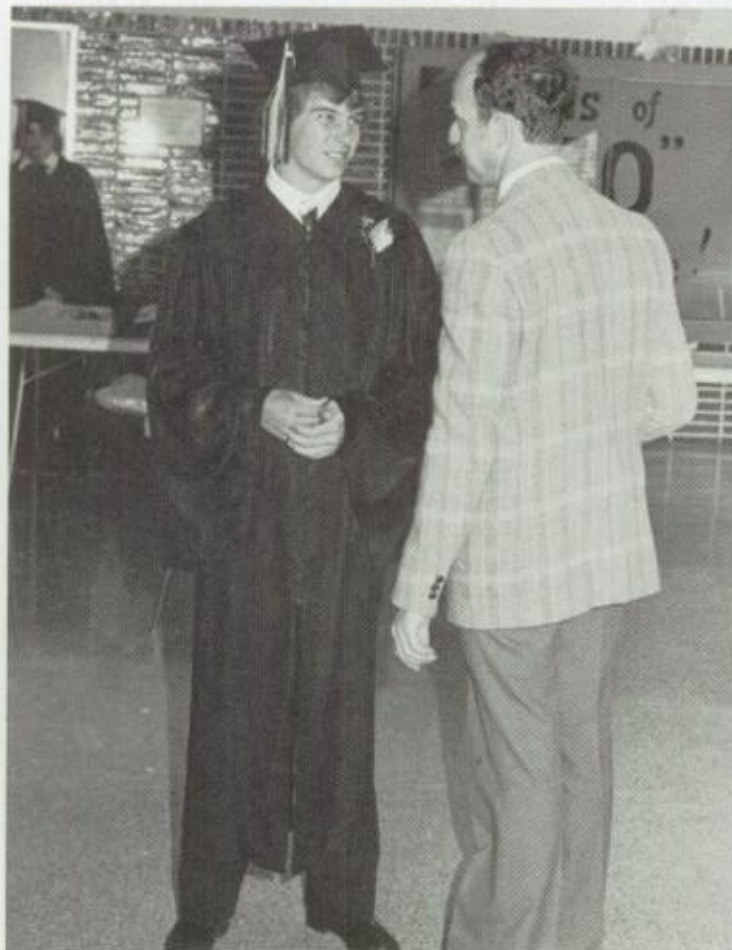

Leah Hall is staying with the Herschel Rhodes family and comes to us from Australia. Leah is best-known for her outspokenness and her charming accent.

Thais Bernardi is from Brazil and is staying with the Larry Fruth family. Thais came to us unable to speak any English. She soon caught on, however, and entertained us with stories of her homeland.

Claudio Corante comes to us from Chile and is staying with the Richard Baker family. Claudio joined us late in the year, but he became well known because of his knowledge in foreign languages.

We at Upper Sandusky High School hope that these students enjoyed their stay in our community and our school. We also wish to thank them for sharing their lives with us and hope that their memories of Upper Sandusky and of the United States will be pleasant ones.

Juniors

*They Play Hard . . .
And Work Hard*

Class Officers: June Shumaker — president, Cathy St. Francis — vice-president, Colleen Thompson — secretary, Deanna Smalley — treasurer

These junior girls aren't too camera shy to pose outside in the middle of winter.

Everyone needs a little fun between classes — this is one way to get it.

Juniors get rowdy after the Christmas assembly. They sang Christmas carols to their heart's content.

Dave and Brad may hate the job now but when it's time for the Prom they'll be glad they did it.

The work goes a lot smoother when you can talk with your friends.

Barry and Mike find that teamwork gets the job done better and faster.

Cindy and Hank take a break from decorating the showcase to get their picture taken.

The junior class is, year by year, becoming more well known for its spirit and originality. This year's juniors broke the old tradition of all girl cheerleaders, because along with the girls were two boys. They were Varsity cheerleaders for the basketball team, a first in our high school. The first girl to ever become part of the golf team also belongs to the junior class. This class has already made a definite contribution to USHS.

Sophomore Class Officers: Pres. — Mark Griffin, Vice-Pres. Nat Miller, Laura Courtright, Treasurer; Diane Phillips, Secretary.

A dreaded day for many, the sophomores bravely accept the challenge — PICTURE DAY!

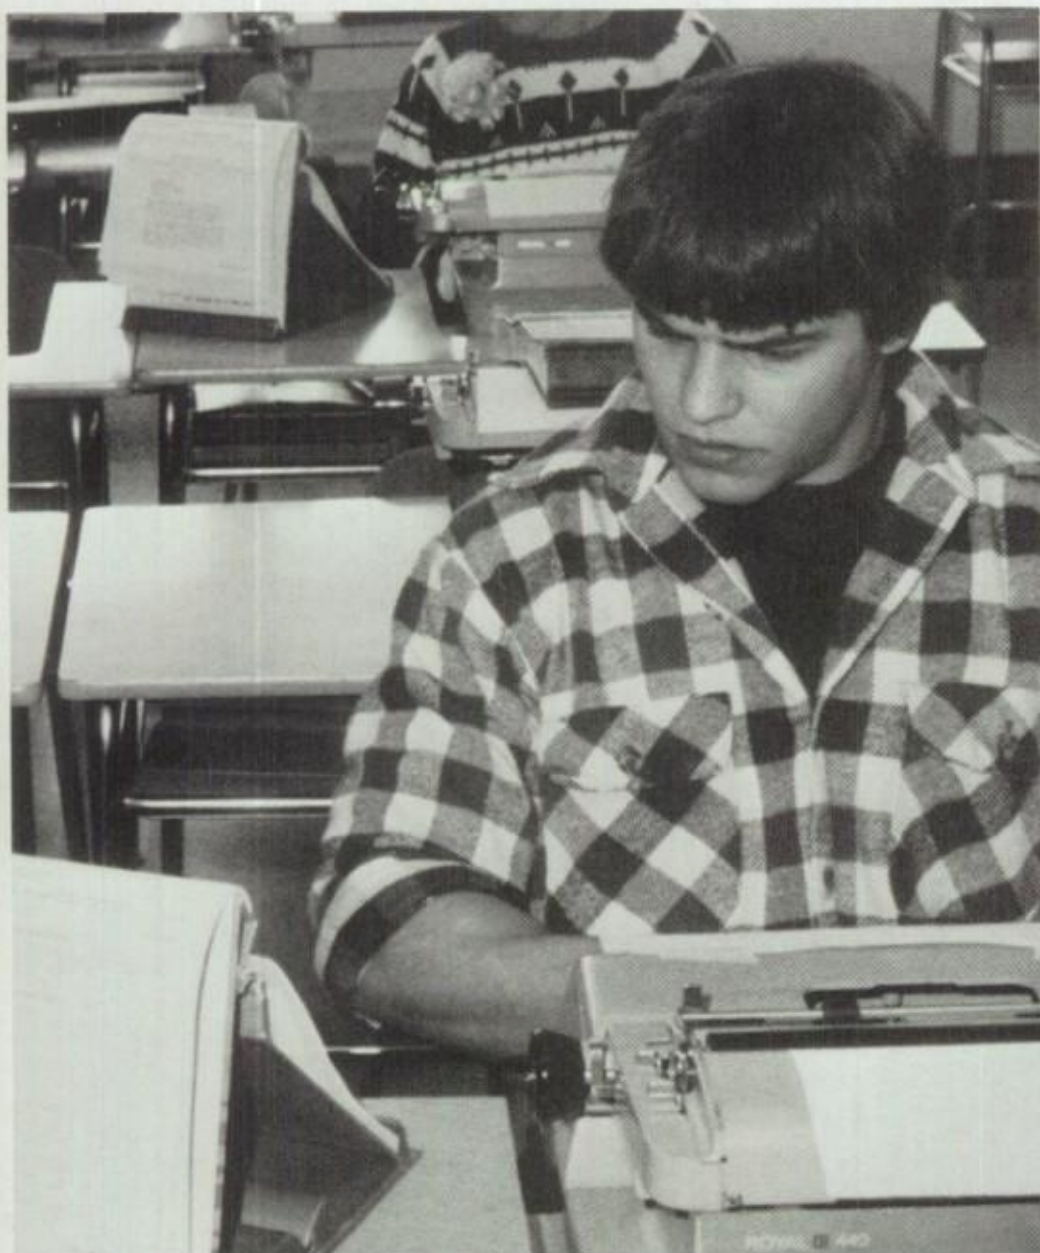

Homerow, Shift . . . new terms and ideas make the sophomore year difficult for Bill Harris.

SOPHOMORES, generally the class with little to offer, this class was a vital part in making this year successful. There were several outstanding players on the Varsity teams in football, wrestling, and basketball and many promising players on the Junior Varsity teams. The Symphonic Band found a sophomore sitting first chair this year and the Musical "Oklahoma" depended a great deal on sophomores. As this trend continues, USHS will become the epitome of all schools.

Sophomores were a hard practicing group in band — they now talk better than anyone else.

A class of many sophomores, the camera can't stay away from them in typing class. Steve LaMont becomes the lucky one this time.

1980 USHS RAM BAND

A Good Halftime Show . . .

Here comes the "mini-band" on its way to the last pep rally for football.

The football team is practicing — they have a game to win. At the same time the band is practicing — they have a halftime show to win. The band's main purpose is to support the football team and this they do well by putting on a good halftime show. When the band looks good, it makes the football team look better. And can that band look good!

Mac concentrates to figure out the tempo for the next song.

Drummers take a bow during the last song of the year.

After being hassled for two years by upperclassmen — these seniors were doing the hassling this year.

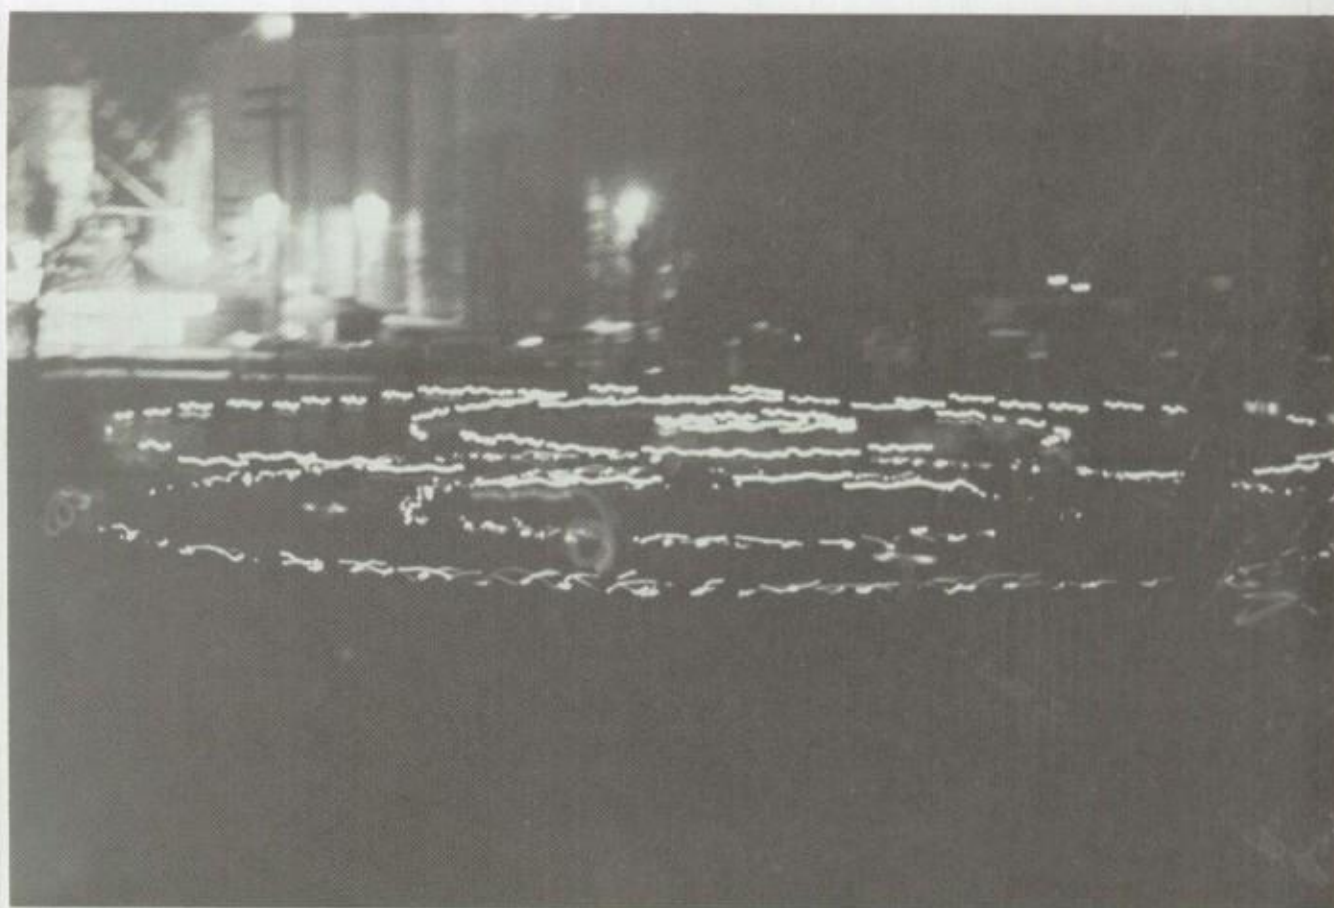

On band night this circle formation was done with shoe and hat lights on each band member.

This cartoon in the band room expresses what band members have been thinking all along.

... Means
Lots Of Practice

Finished product of the circle formation as seen at Friday night's game.

The band takes a break while Mac yells at someone else.

Here we go again. Another day, another practice, another show.

Practicing contest show can get monotonous, and no one in this picture will deny that.

With a concert and contest coming up, the choir has to practice hard.

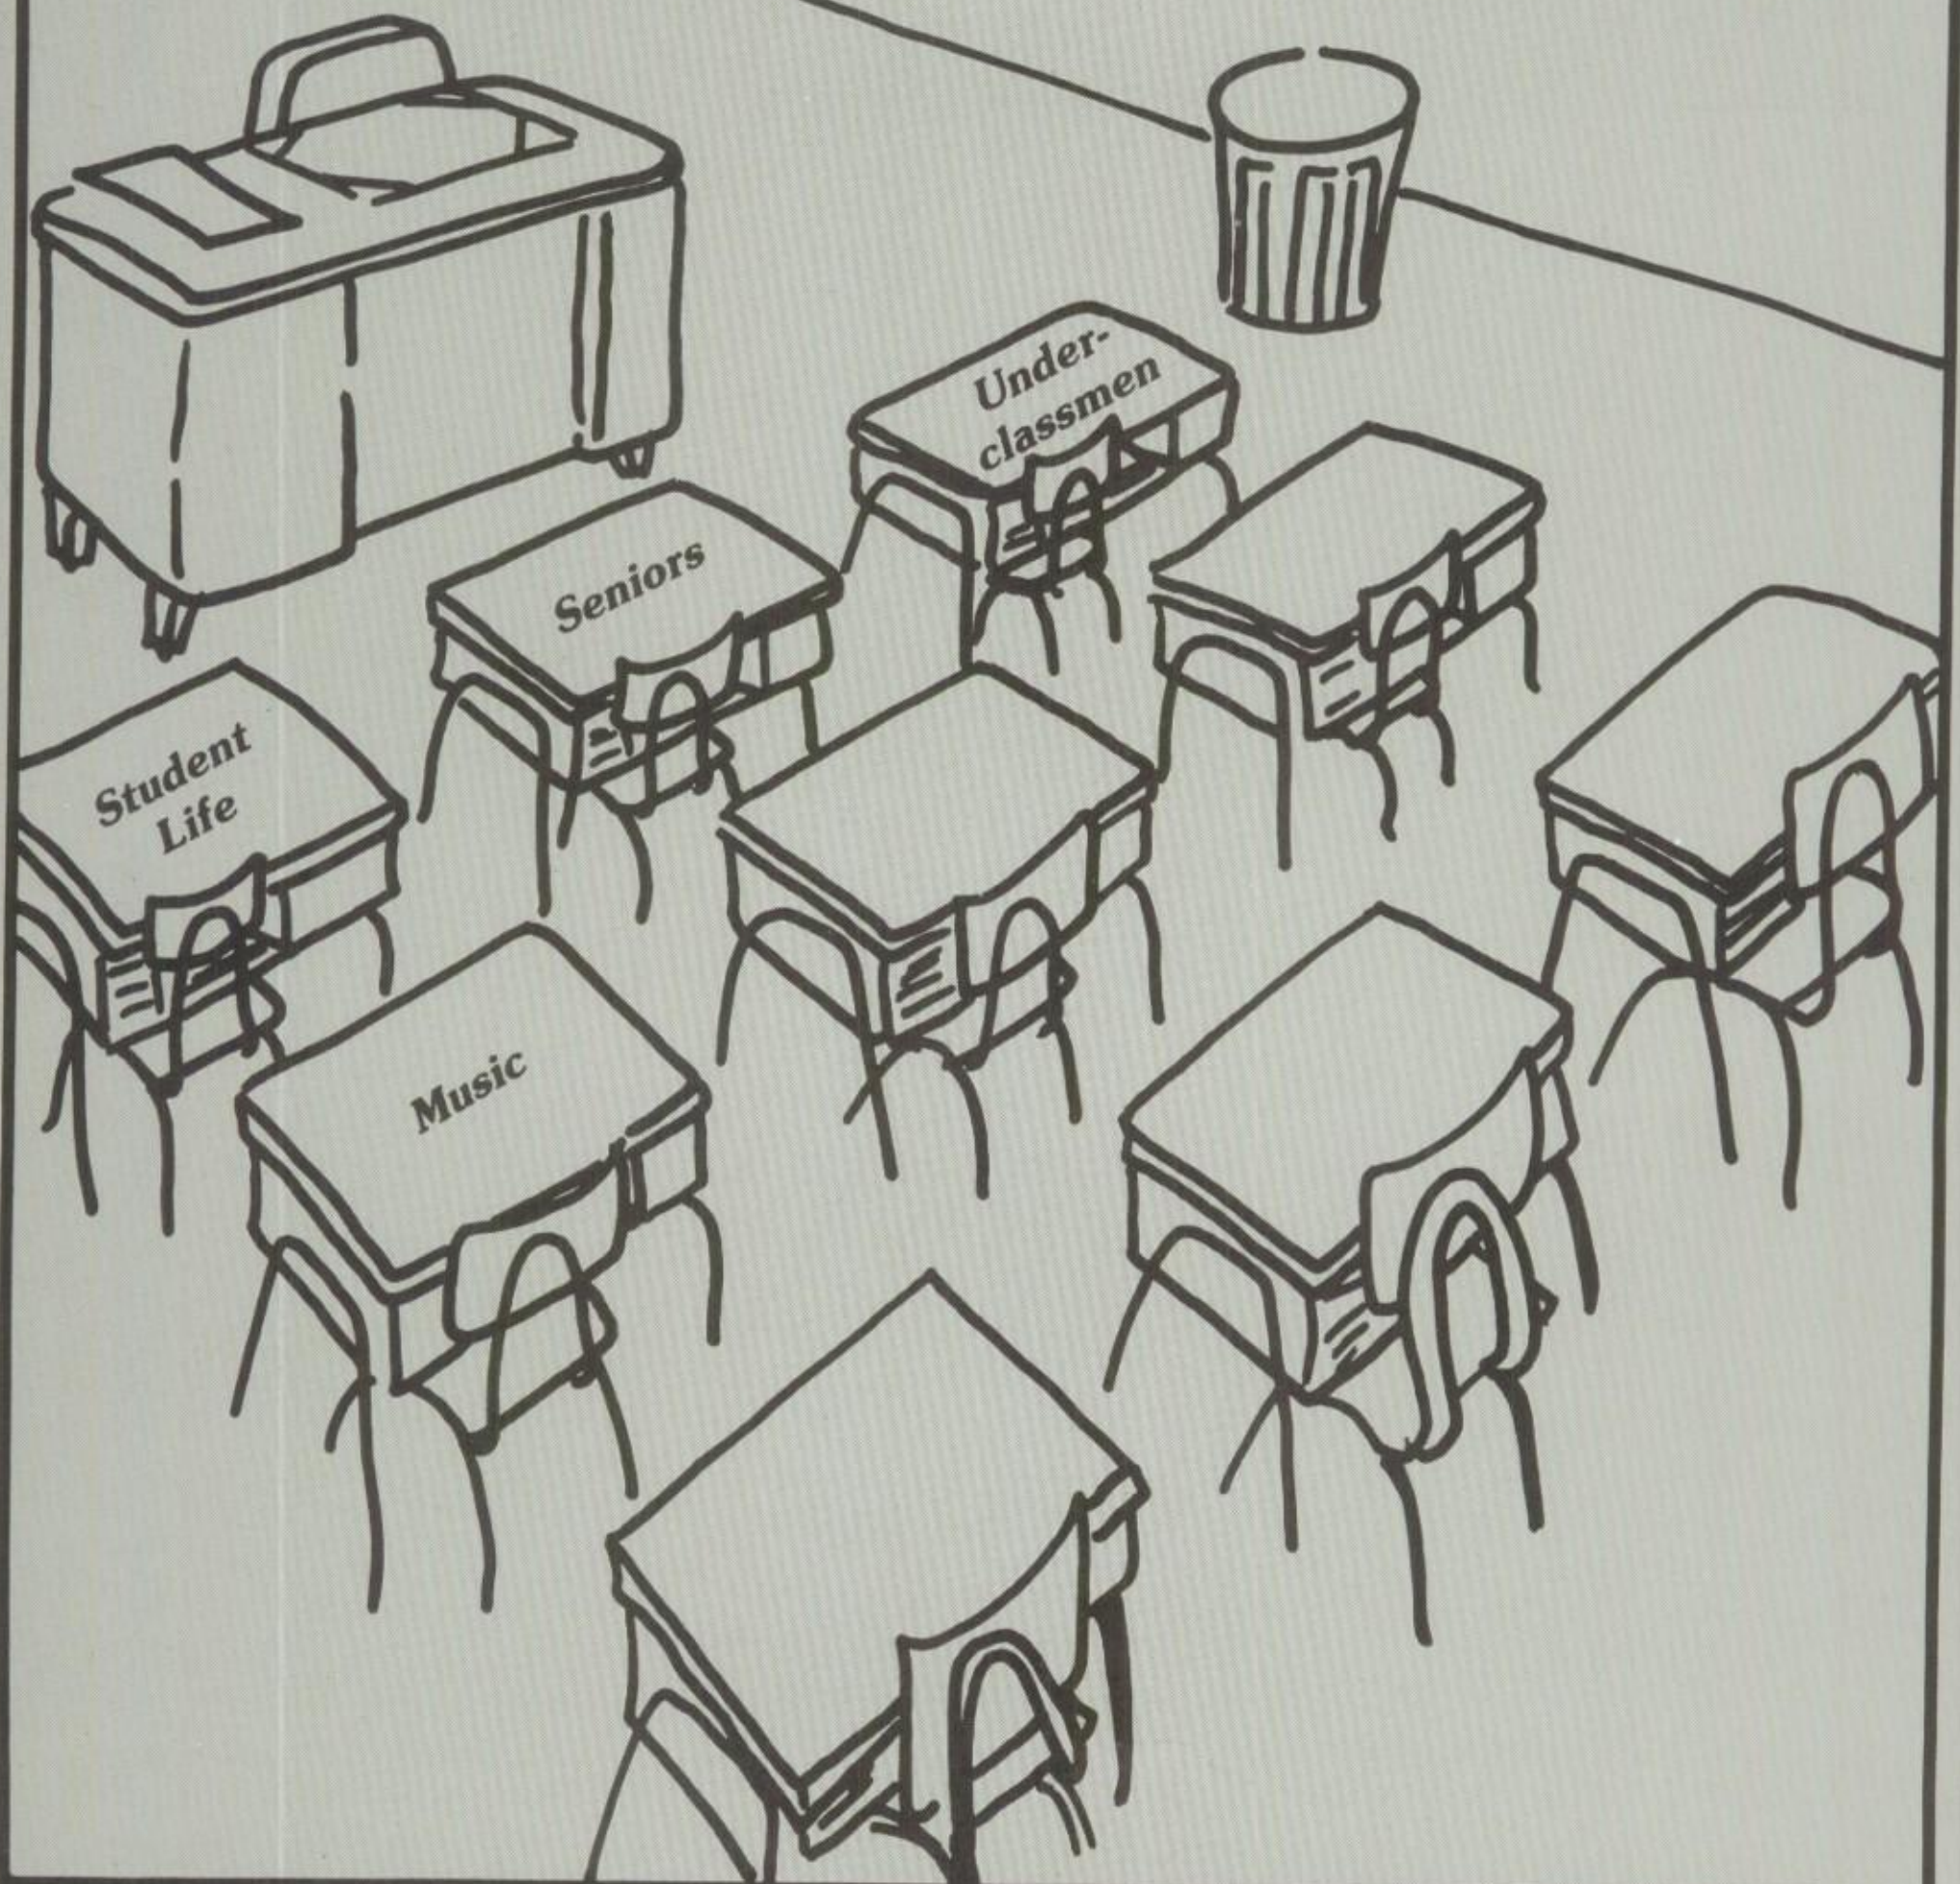

The concert choir was very successful this year. For the first time in nine years an Upper Sandusky choir received a "1" — a superior rating at district contest. They also had the privilege of singing in Columbus at State of Ohio office tower.

Front Row: Tammy Scheck, Jodi Watkins, Vicki Althouse, Chris Conley, Paul Stephan, Tani Zehfus, Helen Pagnard, Chuck Coons, Karen Merrick, Kevin Newell, Liz Eley, Lavon May Back Row: Gary Moran, Sandra Smith, Tina Stansbery, Todd Mennigen, Neil Steiner, Cindy Cunningham, Mary Parsons, Mark Griffin, Becky Hill, Julie Turk, Lori Mackling, Bruce Smythe, Sharon Stansbery, Joe Hilderbrand, Alison Walton, Shari Summit, Jeff Kin

The sophomore choir proves that quantity isn't necessary to have quality. At district contest they received a superior rating. They will be a welcome addition to the concert choir next year.

Absent, Steve Snyder.

1979 saw a new football program at Upper Sandusky High School. Under head coach Jim Lahoski, the 1979 edition of the Rams compiled a 5-3-2 record. At the onset of the 1979 season, the Rams were predicted by the sportswriters to finish sixth in the NOL, but some excellent performances by squad members turned them into title contenders. Compiling a 5-1-1 NOL record, the Rams suffered a narrow one point loss to Galion and a six point loss to Willard for the NOL rights. Led by a newly found passing attack under quarterback Tony Turley, an established ground game by all-league fullback Craig Marshall and tailbacks Steve Snyder and Steve LaMont, and outstanding offensive line play by Ken Rife, Jon Walton, Brad Batton, and All-State honorable mention tackle Don Frey, the Ram offense rolled over the opposition. In addition to the offensive performances, the "Black Shirt" defense held the opponents to 7.5 points per game.

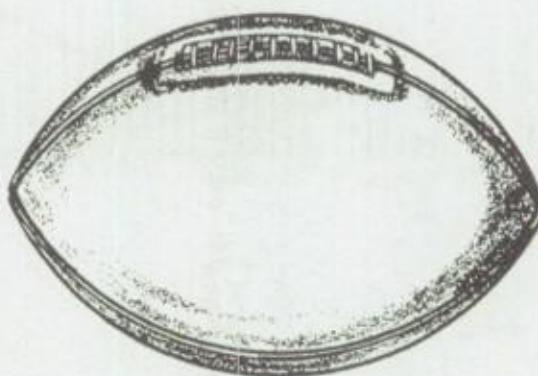

Coaches: Don Stephan, Jeff Bixler, Bob Messaros, Pete Miller, Jim Lahoski. Absent Rob Lee.

The 1979-80 Returning Lettermen

The 1979-80 Senior Players

Football Action

Upper Sanduskys Senior football player Steve Howard finds some running room.

Upper's number 80 is Steve Crawford and he knows his job.

The guys have a little celebration after this TD.

Upper's QB Tony Turley decided to run the ball himself.

Rams Are Great!!!

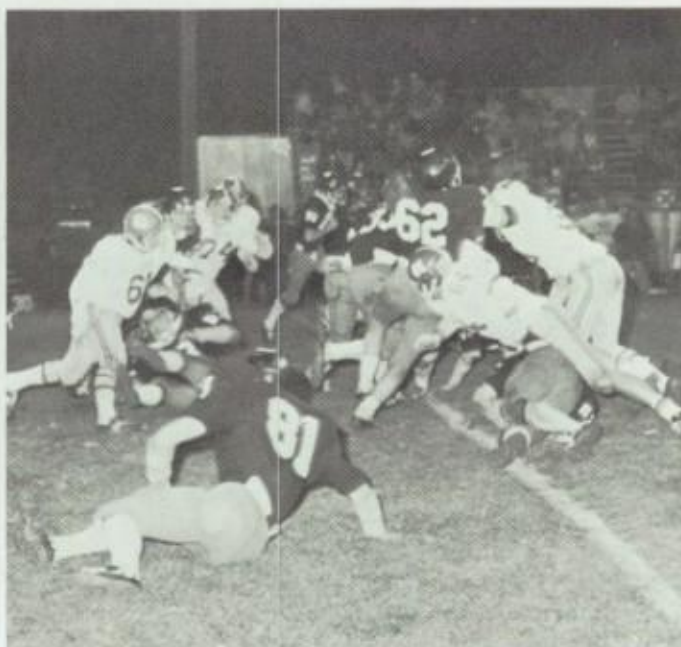

75, Steve McCarthy, holds back a wall of his opponents.

Well guys it looks like we are going to have to talk this one over.

Meanwhile number 33, Steve Snyder is still running that ball.

Number 81, Dave Powell regains consciousness as everyone else takes over.

Here the team executes a play, number 45 Craig Marshall assists.

Steve Snyder runs the ball as Craig Marshall 45 and Jon Walton 63 defend.

"Bump It, Set It, Spike It!"

The girl's volleyball team ended their 1979-80 season with a 7-10 overall record and a 5-9 NOL record. The team will be losing six seniors: Joy Wilson, Karina Frey, Marie Laudick, Sue Bailey, Debbie Grundtisch, and Petra Pribnow. Debbie Grundtisch received second team ALL-NOL. Sue Bailey, Jobie Kauble, Denise Kin, and Theresa Summit received honorable mention. Awards were given to Sue Bailey — highest passing average, Denise Kin — highest setting average, Theresa Summit — highest spiking average, and Deb Grundtisch — highest points served and captain award. Joy Wilson was awarded K of C Sportsmanship award.

Coach Marsha Barnes, Sue Bailey, Marie Laudick, Denise Kin, Joy Wilson, Jane Vogel, Theresa Summit, Joelyn Shoup, Deb Grundtisch, Karina Frey, Petra Pribnow, Jenny Kennedy, and Jobie Kauble.

Karina Frey shows her versatility while she spikes the ball over an opponent's block.

Jobie Kauble and Marie Laudick have fun setting up the net while the others take it more seriously.

Jobie bumps the ball while the other players wait with anticipation to get their hands on it!

Sue Bailey tries to dink the ball over the net while Theresa Summit waits for a return.

Karen, Beth, Rita, and Jenny look on as Janet passes the ball over the net.

What's Jenny doing? She's either trying to do the splits in mid-air or waving to her mom!

Meet The Team

OK Gary, lets just see if you can sprint upside down.

When Coach Young says "go", the whole team knows what to do.

Cross Country

It looks like Randy is the man for Todd to beat right now.

Come on Barry run a little faster. He's getting closer!

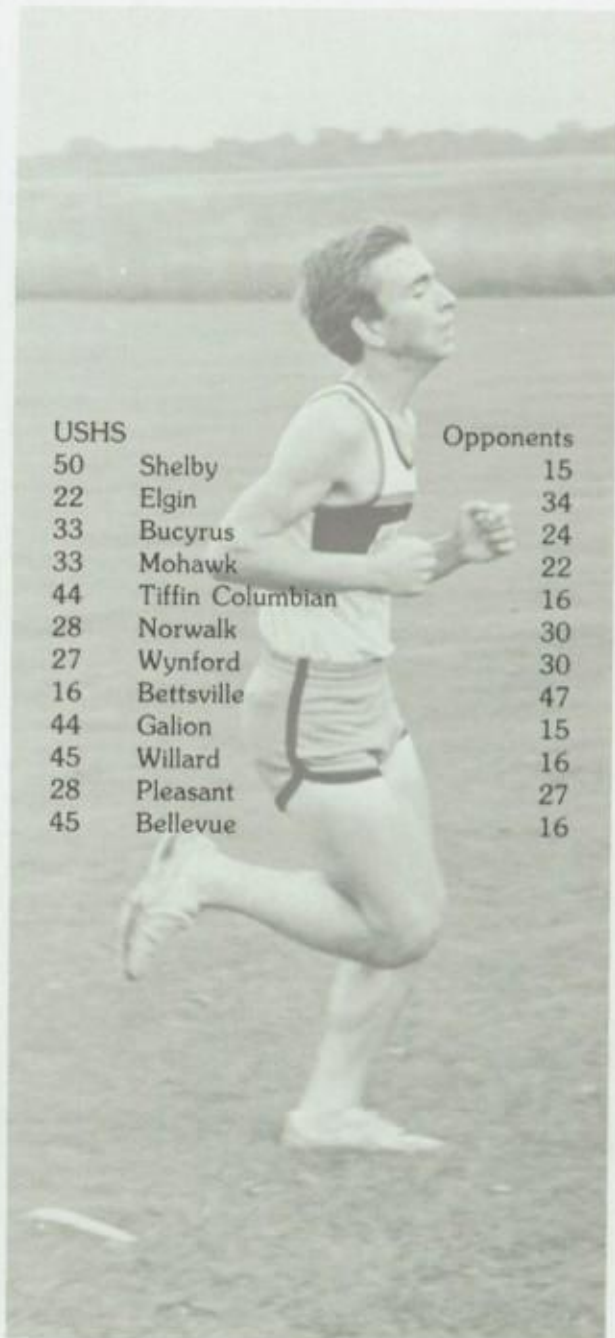

Bill Winroth is working out a little on the course.

Rick prepares to pick up the pace and take the lead.

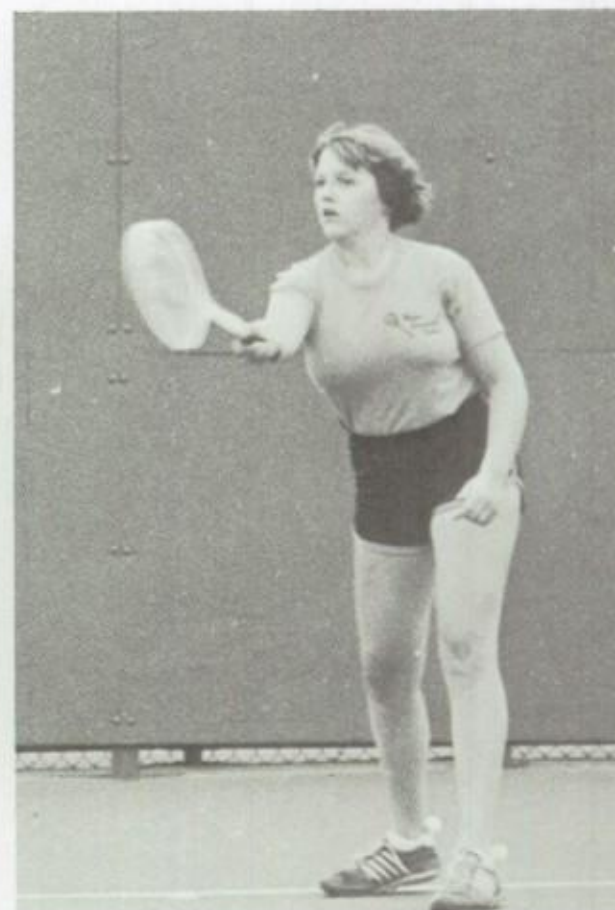

Due to the lack of depth, the young Cross Country team ended their season with a record of 4-8. Led through a highly competitive Northern Ohio League, by captain Rick Smith, the team had only two other returning letterman, Randy Smith and Barry Miller. In an attempt to try to compensate for this lack of depth the team collected a total of 1537 miles in the regular season.

Janet and Martha seem to be having fun trying to hit the same ball.

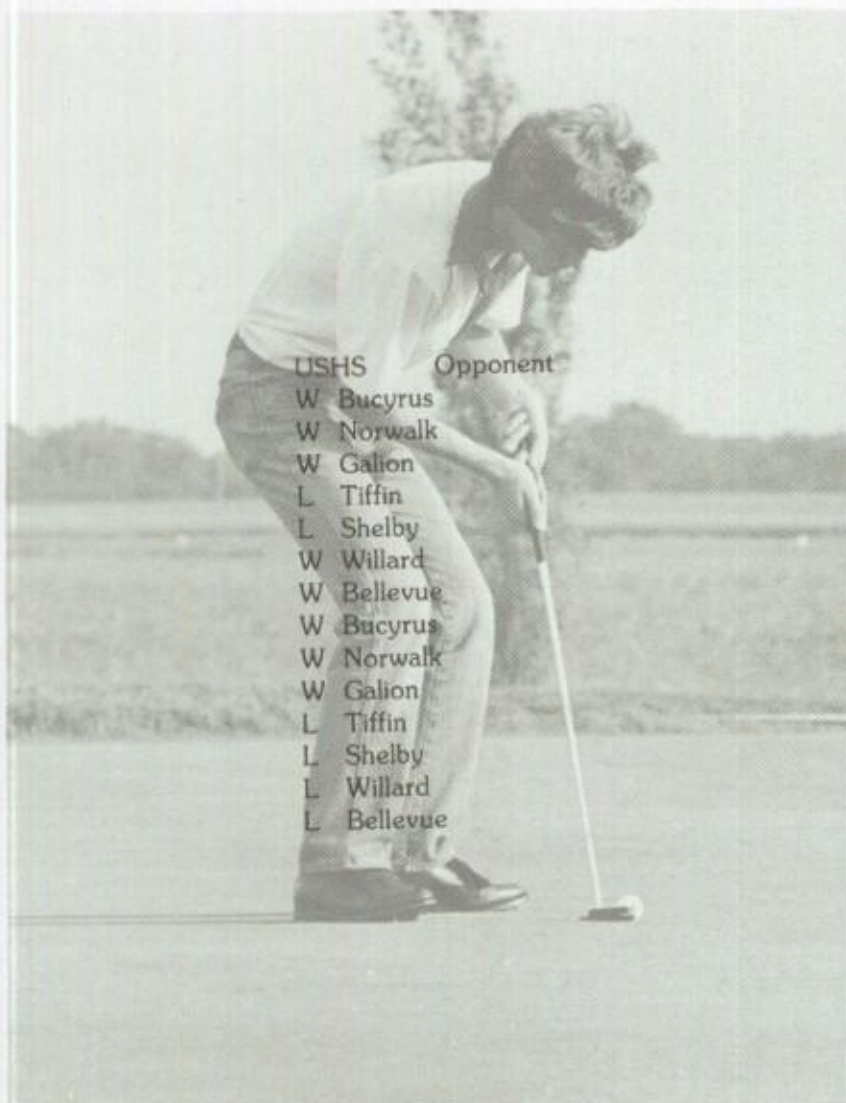

Sonya Schryer does a little jig as she hits the ball back to her opponent.

Golf

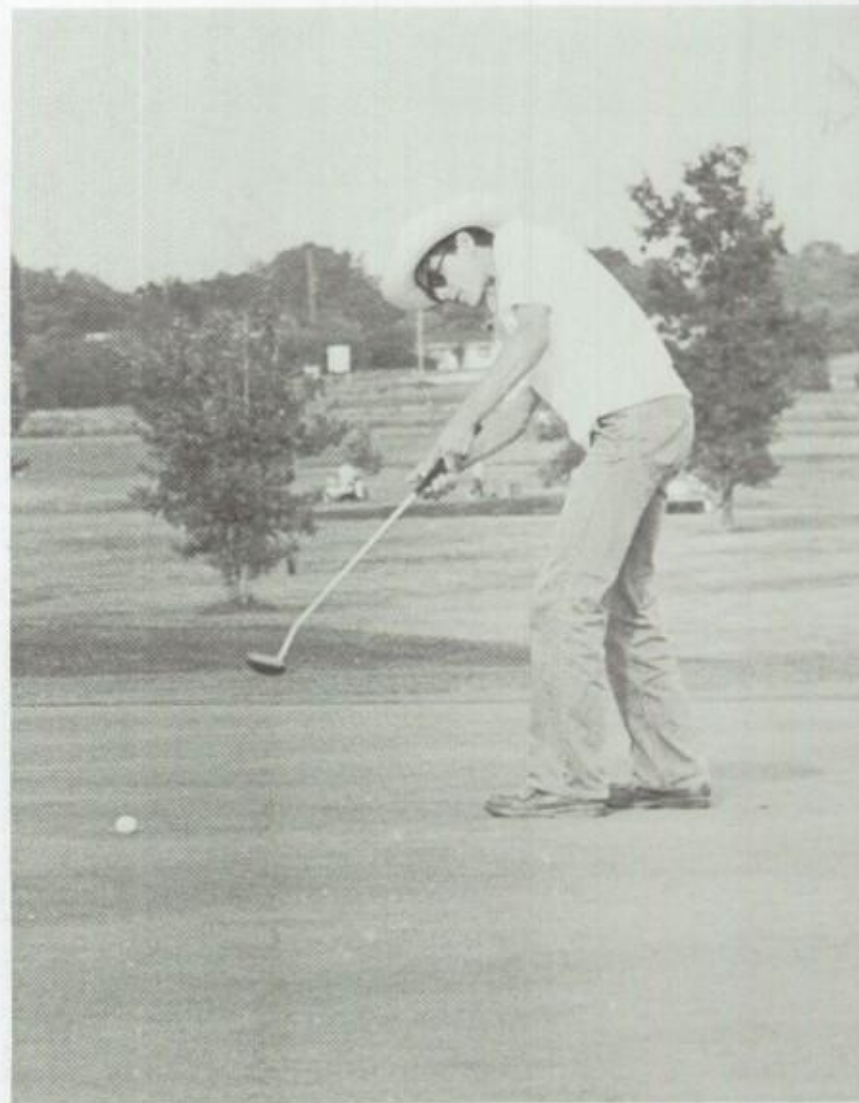

This years Golf team compiled a record of 8-6, and placed sixth in the District meet. In addition to this fine record Rick Moore became the player with the lowest point average in the entire NOL. The Varsity golfers consisted of Rick Moore, Doug Morehart, Hank Hale, Kathy Solacoff and Dan Lucas. These Varsity players along with the Junior Varsity held their home matches at Lincoln Hills Golf Course.

Boys

Front: David Browne, Frank Winter, Rob Young, Bruce Smythe, Doug Morehart, Second Row: Paul Stephan, Randy Winter, Jeff McDaniel, J.D. Compston, and Coach Tom Needs.

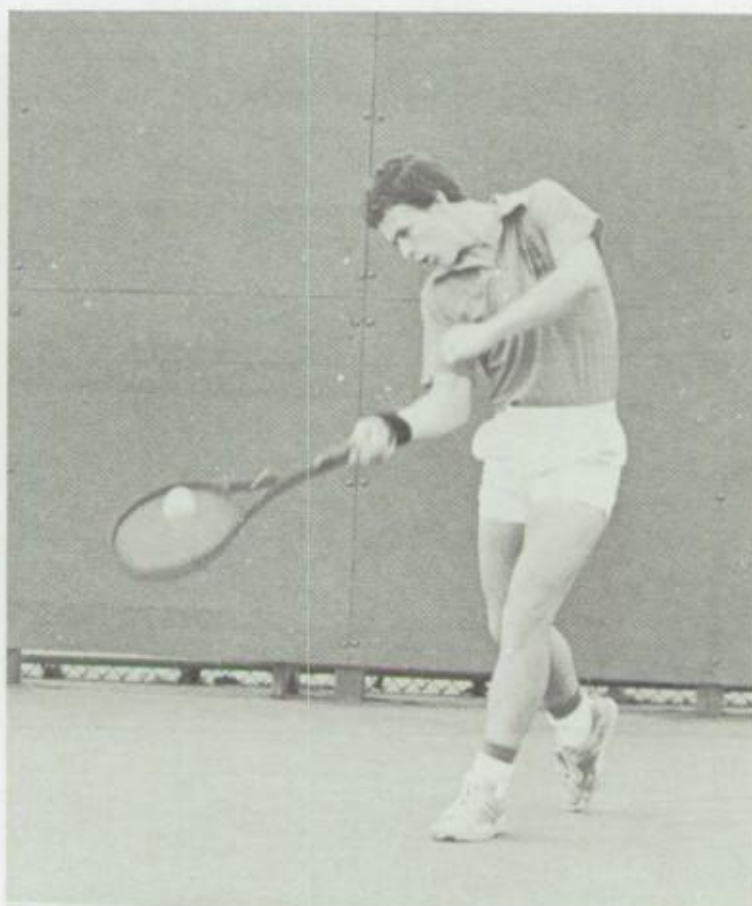

With only two returning players this year, the 1980 tennis squad lacked experience at the varsity level of competition. This reason, more than any other, caused a disappointing season. Although the team never experienced the joy and satisfaction of victory, it did learn to be patient and to keep striving in the face of adversity and defeat. A strength of character which should help each in the future.

Tennis

That's it Dave keep your eye on the ball and grit those teeth.

Doug looks like he's pretty confident on this shot.

Rob must have hit that one clear off of the tennis court.

Frank is executing a perfect swing in this picture or at least that's what he thinks.

“Kill, Destroy, Mutilate, Mangle . . .”

During the 1979-80 football season the cheerleaders sold novelty pins representing the various athletic events. Every week the football team had a motto and the cheerleaders made something for each player to wear on his outfit. They decorated the football bus before games to help the players get psyched. The squad will be losing seniors Sue Quinn and Angie Kinley.

“Kill, Destroy, Mutilate, Mangle, Mame, Cre-mate, Crunch!” This was an often heard cheer at football and basketball games.

The cheerleaders spent a week at Kenyon College in Mt. Vernon to prepare for this school years' activities. During the 1979-80 basketball season the cheerleaders sold the “Rah Rah Rag.” The cheerleaders also kept scrap books for the senior football and basketball players. This was the first year for the squad to have boy cheerleaders. They were Dave Powell and Steve Thiel and these young men created a lot of energy for the Ram spirit!

VARSIITY: Sue Quinn, Lisa Clinger, Theresa Summit, Jean Eippert, Jackie Reidlinger, Angie Kinley.

The cheerleaders get the crowd rowdy at the annual bonfire.

For some it's hard to watch the game and cheer at the same time, right Jackie?

RESERVE: Sue Lehman, Diane Phillips, Nan Miller, Linette Constein.

VARSITY: Liz Johns, Steve Thiel, Jean Eippert, Kathy Solacoff, Angie Kinley, Dave Powell.

The J.V. and Varsity squads lead the crowd in cheer at a school pep rally.

Dave Powell, Jean Eippert, and Kathy Solacoff, generate some spirit at a home basketball game.

RESERVE: Sue Lehman, Jackie Reidlinger, Linette Constein, Theresa Summit.

Boys Basketball

Under the direction of Coach John Bowen, the Varsity ended the 1979-1980 season with five victories and eighteen losses. The Rams, hampered by inexperience and lack of height, did start the season with a victory over Colonel Crawford. A loss to the Bucyrus Redmen started a twelve game losing streak. The Varsity cagers snapped their slump with a spectacular overtime victory against Norwalk.

The highlight of the season was the win over the Galion Tigers. This was the Rams second win in a row and their confidence was increasing.

Despite the 5-18 season Ed Young did make second team NOL. He averaged 15.7 points and 13.1 rebounds a game.

Number 20 for Upper is Kevin Collins trying to get around the opposition.

That guy just thinks he can get the ball away from Hank.

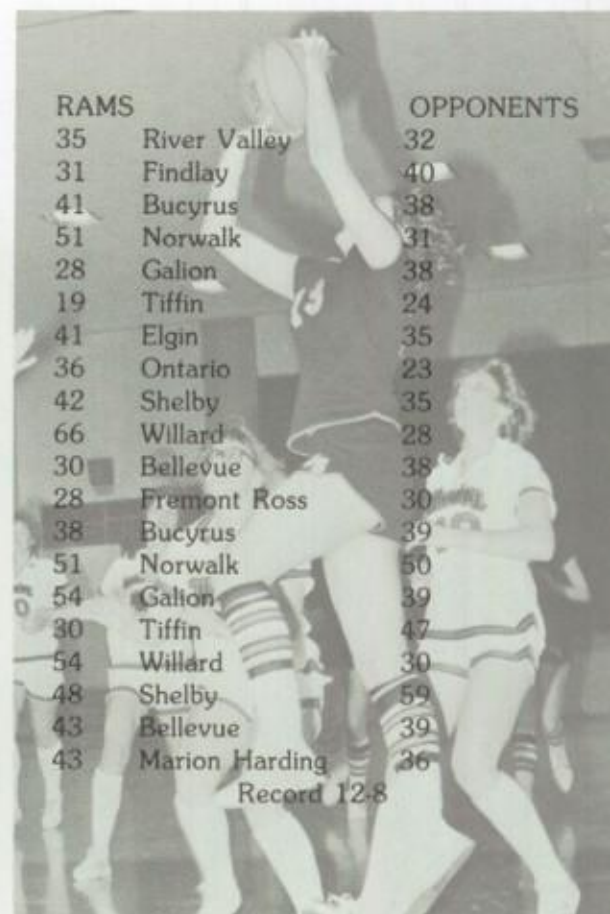

Did you know that Bruce can do the splits and dribble all at the same time?

Well, now that we are up this far where do we go from here?

"3 On 3"

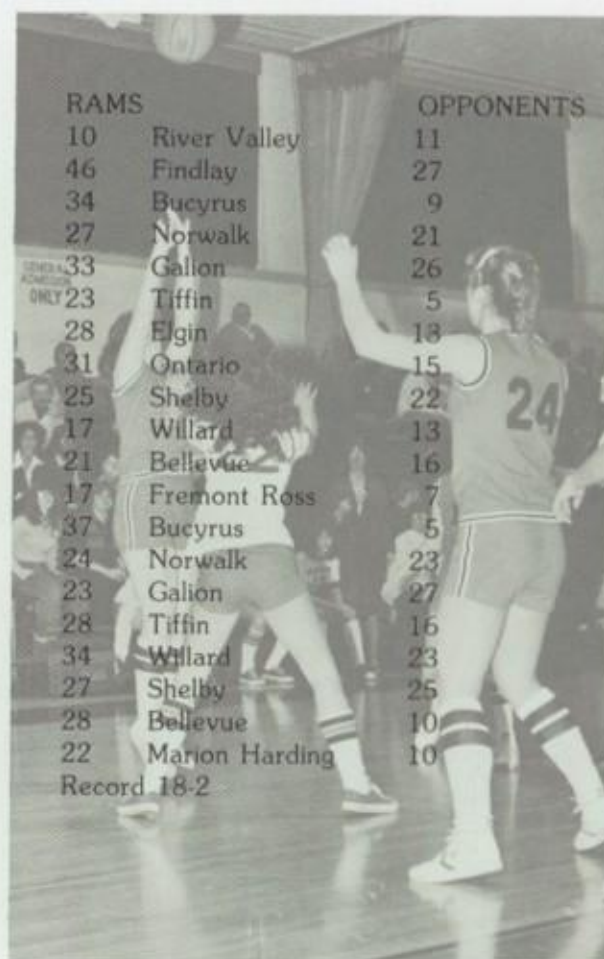

The Lady Rams ended their 1979-80 season with a 12-8 overall record and a 8-6 NOL record. One of the many drills during practice was "3 on 3" and it was the favorite of the team. Awards were given at the end of the season to Laura Crow — Best Defensive, Deb Grundtisch — Best Offensive, Karina Frey — Most Improved, and the K of C Sportsmanship award went to Laura Crow. Joelyn Shoup and Deb Grundtisch were named to second team ALL-NOL. The J.V. team ended their season with a 18-2 record.

Upper Rams

Plagued by injuries and illness, unable to fill two weight classes and forced to move people up a weight class to fill two others, the wrestling team had to struggle to win three meets this year. However, there were some bright spots this year as Tom Patrick, Bob Patrick, Steve Niederkohr and Mark Griffin qualified for the district wrestling tournament. Those four and Charlie Zohoury finished the season with winning records. All the wrestlers showed a lot of courage by working hard to improve even though it didn't always show in the won-lost column.

Statistically, Charlie Zohoury led the team in pins with seven, Steve Niederkohr in near falls with seventeen, Tom Patrick in wins with sixteen and takedowns with twenty, Steve Billeg in reversals with sixteen, and Mark Griffin in escapes with twenty.

The team voted Charlie Zohoury "The Mat Brother Award", as the person on the team, that they felt helped them the most with their wrestling. Other special awards went to Steve Billeg, K of C Sportsmanship Award, Tom Patrick most wins by an underclassmen, and Charlie Zohoury most wins by a senior.

Hit It Hard!

The varsity softball team recorded a winning season while not accomplishing many of its goals. In Northern Ohio League competition they managed to defeat all schools at least once, except Tiffin. In their last week of competition they defeated both teams who were leading the league (Bellevue and Shelby) to create a final confrontation of those two teams to determine the league championship.

In sectional tournament they lost 10-13 to regional finalist of a year ago, Clear Fork, who also progressed to regional tourney action this year.

Defensively the Lady Rams should be strong next year as they lose only their short stop and first baseman to graduation. Sue Bailey made the N.O.L. all league for the second year.

 Third row: Mike Hill, Gary Moran, Bill Winroth, Barry Swihart, Mark Griffin, Joel Leslie, Ron Bailey.

This year's track team accomplished a great deal in the relays, and in the sectional and district meets. In the relays the following was accomplished: Findlay Relays — champions — Joe Swankhouse — high jump tied record 6'4", high jump relay champions — Swankhouse, Powell, Leslie. Pole vault champions in the relays set a new record of 36' — Tim Lopez — pole vault champion — 13'. Discus relay champions — Turley, La Mont, Snyder. Bellevue Invitationals — Swankhouse — high jump champion and Brett Swihart — 300 meter low hurdles. Bill Kraus Relays Champion — Joe Swankhouse — high jump. NOL champions — Joe Swankhouse — high jump — league record 6'5½", Barry Swihart — 800 yard run, 400 yard relay team — Main, McClain, Snyder, and La Mont, Mile relay team — Brett Swihart, Barry Swihart, Main, Yeater. Sectional "AA" meet — Swankhouse — high jump champion — 6'4", District Qualifiers: Yeater, Main, Barry Swihart, and Brett Swihart for Mile Relay, Swankhouse for high jump and Brett Swihart for 300 Low Hurdles. A new school record was set in the 440 relay by Main, McClain, Snyder, and La Mont. The time was 45.6. The team ended their season with a 7 and 2 record.

Book It, Rip It!

The 1980 Girls' Track team led by seniors: Jenny Logsdon, Petra Pribnow, and Laura Crow helped produce a 5-11 record. Although the season wasn't real successful many records were broken. Connie Barnes broke her own school record in the discus by throwing 119'2" and also set a new N.O.L. record. The two mile relay team consisting of J. Logsdon, J. Riedlinger, S. Dillon, and C. Smalley set a school record at 11:52.3. Wendy Hamner tied the school record in the hurdles at 16.5.

Awards were given to Laura Crow — Honorary Captain, Connie Barnes — Most Points Field Events, Wendy Hamner — Most Points Sprints, Chris Smalley — Most Points Distance, Joan Franz — Sportsmanship Award.

Connie Barnes qualified for the state track meet and she placed tenth in the state.

The Ram Baseball team finished the season with a record of 6-14. This included an NOL record of 4-10.

The season began with a victory at Elgin. After entering an early season slump, the Rams broke loose with victories at Tiffin, Willard, and a sectional win over Mohawk. Upper's tournament trail ended in the sectional finals with a loss to Shelby.

Even though the Rams didn't have a winning season, the team improved upon the record of the previous year. With a sound nucleus of letterman returning next year plus a J.V. team that finished with a 6-2 record, the future looks very bright for the Upper Sandusky baseball program.

Rick Moore made the N.O.L. All League while Brad Batton and Dana Maltsbarger made Honorable Mention.

National Honor Society

This year NHS decided to try something new. Instead of having real flowers at the Honors Banquet they made silk flowers. Once a week members of NHS went to Fairhaven Home to learn how to make the flowers and visit with the residents. These visits were enjoyed by both the NHS members and the senior citizens.

Computer Games

On February 27, 1980 ten high school seniors traveled to Findlay College to participate in computer games. The ten students were divided into two separate teams. One team consisted of Jill Courtright, Lyle Gottfried, Charles Vent, Bonnie Murphy, and Deb Grundtisch. The other team included Dennis Trautwein, Karen Van Scoy, Steve Crawford, Tim Lautermilch, and Bruce Shoup. Mr. Fred Snyder drove the students to Findlay College and also participated on a team, which was formed by other teachers. Each team was a "car company," and competed against each other for the highest profit. Each team had a special name for their car and selected the style of each car kit. All data that was necessary was collected and compiled on a sheet of paper from each team. This information was then entered into the computer. Each paper represented a month. It was tentatively scheduled to complete a year, but because of the break-down of the computer, only nine months were completed. The teams soon discovered that you had not lost until the last month was over, because the profit and the market changed dramatically and very suddenly. As the teams anxiously awaited the results of the "month," they either tabulated figures or, as several teams did, played cards! Because of the failure of the new computer, an older, slower computer was used and the time between each "month" lasted somewhere around fifty minutes. Therefore, the card games got to be very challenging and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Lunch was served by the college to the participants. Neither of the Upper Sandusky teams won, but they did receive certificates and would recommend anyone to participate if given the opportunity.

Thespians

The International Thespian Society was very successful. After the production of "Oklahoma," a large amount of sophomores and juniors accumulated points for membership. Being an honorary society, membership has to be earned by collecting ten points. All Thespians are members of Tri-Masque also. Officers were president — Kris Coulter, vice-president — Lynn Helge, and secretary-treasurer — Wayne Dennis.

“We’re Only A Little Late”

Editor’s Note:

WHAT A MESS — this seemed to be the motto of this year’s annual staff. Weekend work sessions at Jeff’s or Kris’s house were not uncommon as deadlines approached. As always, lost pictures and missing copy turned up at the very last moment making late pages very common.

This year we tried to bring a new look to the annual. Some things you may or may not like, but, hopefully, the changes will improve the overall appearance of the book.

We have really enjoyed working on this year’s annual and hope that you, the reader, enjoy it as much as we have.

Jeff Short

Deb Grundtisch and Bill Moore took on the task of Sports Editors this year.

Finances were the responsibility of Jill Courtright and Laurie Deckler who were this year's Business Managers.

Annual Ad Salesmen: Dean Eyestone, Bob Siegel, Jodi Watkins, Lynda Schertzer, Sharon Nachbar, Renae Plott, Cheri Sheperd, Alison Walton, Liz Johns, Tammy Scheck, Becky Hill, Cynthia Logsdon, Brenda Adkins, Sue Quinn, Lynn Helge, June Shumaker, and Cathy St. Francis.

Orange & Black

The Orange and Black Staff, advised by Mrs. Nora Kinley, was basically the same with a few added additions. This year saw more in-depth editorials and a new column of top ten songs voted on weekly by the student body. Many favorites returned from past years and made this year's Orange and Black enjoyable and informative.

DECA

This year's DECA class became very active in the school this year. Besides the yearly bonfire and concession stand, DECA decorated the various showcases around the school. A dance sponsored by the DECA class, featuring the WDIF Roadshow, was one of the best dances of the year. Brenda Frisch designed and made "Class of 1980" T-shirts which almost every senior purchased. To reward this hard work, Janet Grabowski, Mark Milligan, Jim Baker, Dale Rowe, and Jackie Lehman were presented with awards in late March.

First Row: Sally Koehler, Susie Thiel, Kelley Hetzel, Janet Grabowski. Second Row: Barb Tesmer, Annette Rowe, Melinda Molnar, Laura Wilson. Third Row: Lesa Wall, Jackie Lehman, Tina McGowan, Melodie Hoy, Dorraine Gibson. Fourth Row: Linda Fruth, Dale Rowe, Mark Milligan, Randy Thiel, Mr. Brown.

Decorating the show cases was one of the many projects of this year's DECA class.

A DECA sponsored Christmas party was held at Angeline and was enjoyed by all.

Lots of work went into making the signs that went on each candidate's car at the game.

Sandy helps Dan decorate for the Homecoming dance for which the theme was "Sweet Autumn Nights."

The tall, glowing Christmas tree in the commons this year was a welcome sight compared to the dreary weather outside.

Student council had plenty to do which kept it busy throughout the year. They were responsible for the homecoming ceremonies and bought and decorated a Christmas tree for the commons to get people in the Christmas spirit. Also, for the first time, the student council sponsored two bloodmobiles. The work that went into the preparation for the extra visitation paid off because the set goal of 80 pints was greatly surpassed by a donation of 107 pints of blood.

These four guys are waiting to go give blood at student council's second bloodmobile.

A once-nervous Phyllis is feeling much better and laughs with a nurse while giving blood.

While waiting to get their blood pressure checked these people are supposed to read the pamphlet but obviously they've found something more interesting.

These people plus many others are responsible for the terrific success of the bloodmobile by helping reach a total of 107 pints of blood.

FHA

This year's Future Homemakers of America had various interesting and fun activities assisted by Mrs. Lininger and Mrs. Fredericks. They kicked off the year with a Taco Party. At Christmas they made pinecone wreaths for their families. Valentine's Day was a busy time for them. They sold carnations for Children's Hospital. The group closed the year with the state convention in Columbus.

These girls take some time after school to make pinecone wreaths.

FFA

This year the chapter held monthly meetings and its annual fruit sales. The FFA banquet saw Miss Deanna Smalley crowned as chapter sweetheart.

Other chapter activities included: State and National conventions, judging contests, public speaking, and parliamentary procedure. The chapter will strive to achieve a brighter future next year.

Chuck and Ken keep busy and in shape by unloading some fruit.

Key Club

Key Club is an international organization enrolling over 50,000 students of high school age in over 2,000 clubs. The clubs are devoted to developing leadership and rendering services to the school and the community.

The 1979-1980 Key Club, advised by Mr. Walcutt, held meetings once a month and each week two members attended the Upper Sandusky Kiwanis Club noon luncheon. They also sponsored a scrap metal drive.

Front Row: Tim Lautermilch, Barry Miller, Tony Turley, Steve Lehman Second Row: Steve Brown, Jane Bardon, Steve Howard, Mark Milligan Third Row: Renee Giacalone, Kim Swartz, Brenda Swihart, Brad Batton Fourth Row: Pat Merrick, Lynda Schertzer, Karen Long, Mr. Walcutt Fifth Row: Terri Lambrite, Dick Leonard, Wayne Dennis, Doug Berg Sixth Row: Carla Baker, Lisa Lee, Lynn Helge, Brenda Adkins Seventh Row: Sue Quinn, Angie Kinley, Paul Stephans, Louie Garza

Tim and Brenda put up the week's schedule — one of the things Key Club members are responsible for.

Art Club

The Art Club began in 1961. They have helped out whenever USHS and the public needed spirit, enthusiasm, advertisement, and financial aid in the form of art.

Much of the art, which decorated the halls at school was done by the Art Club. A display of some of their art was made at the Pops Concert.

After putting up the showcase it's time to relax and have some fun.

Foreign Language Club

This year the Foreign Language Club's main purpose was to send a group of students to Europe over spring vacation. The money was raised by sponsoring a paper drive, serving refreshments at the play and musical, and selling T-shirts. The Foreign Language Club also had a French and a Spanish dinner.

First Row: Mrs. Heining-Boynton, Joy Graeser, Sheila Collins, Bruce Voorheis, Mrs. Morris Second Row: Pam Swartz, Laura Courtright, Vicki Althouse, Alison Walton, Bruce Smythe, Jobie Kauble, Beth Dunn, Julie Juenzli Third Row: Lisa Bailey, Liz Johns, Sean Lalik, Lisa Clinger, Dan Deckler, Leah Hall, Amy Leonard, June Shumaker Fourth Row: Mary Wright, Jill Courtright, Chris Chandler, Sandy Cheney, Genny Lucas, Laurie Deckler, Joe Hilderbrand, Caribe Malo, Jane Vogel Fifth Row: Phil Karg, Liz Eley, Joe Platt, Chuck Coons, Diane Phillips, Lisa Molnar, Joel Leslie, Jeff Wilt Sixth Row: Rita VanScoy, Karen Tiell, Beth Stine, Jodi Watkins, Sue Lehman, Chris Smalley, Joelyn Shoup, Linette Constein Seventh Row: Eileen Perez, Denise Kin, Laura Swavel, Janelle Weaver, Neil Stiner, Julie Turk Eighth Row: Jim Gibson, Scott Daulton, Dave Fox, Kevin Kramer, Jay McClain, Larry Cameron

These lucky few went to Europe over spring vacation.

Business Club

The 1979-1980 Business Club, advised by Miss Cook, held meetings on the second Tuesday of each month. Two activities of the Club were the annual Christmas Exchange and typing up rosters and programs for various people and clubs in the community. Each year the Club gives a scholarship to a student who plans to further his or her education in the business field.

Front Row: Colleen Thompson, Thia Logsdon, Patty Cline, Betsy Pirnstill, Kendall Richardson Second Row: Liz Johns, June Shumaker, Grace Garza, Jill Courtright, Renee Giacalone, Lori Anspach, Deanna Smalley Third Row: Miss Cook, Sheila Collins, Jenny Newell, Cindy Austin Fourth Row: Janel Weaver, Jane Bardon, Charlene Goodman, Renae Plott, Sharon Nachbar, Theresa Summit, Kathy Solacoff

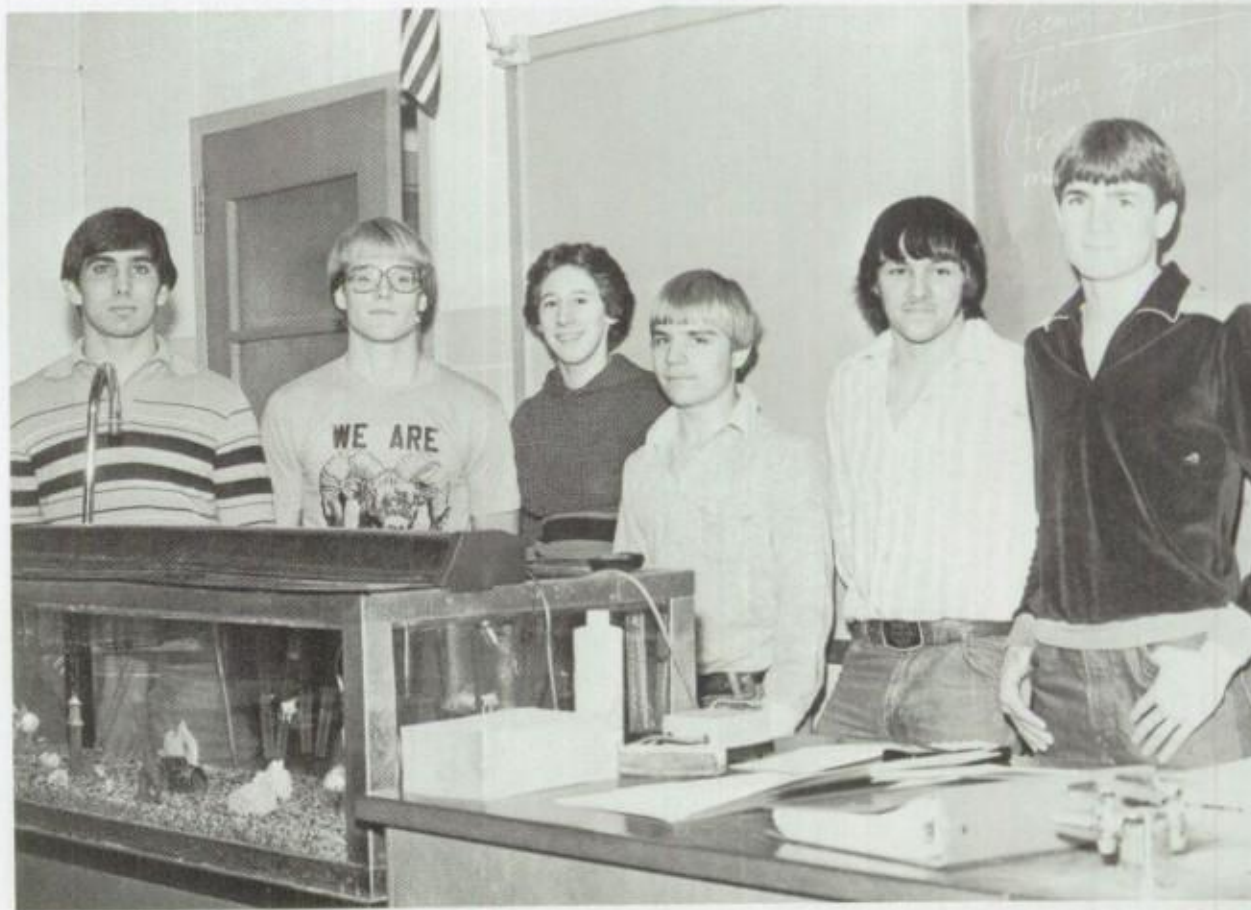

Everyone gets something at the Business Club's Christmas exchange.

FNA

Kneeling: Julie Huffman, Sheila Swihart, Lisa Bollinger

Standing: Sandy Cheney, Karen Merrick, Bev McLaughlin, Alison Walton, Jodi Watkins, Annette Miller, Jennifer Newell, Tammy Caudill, Sheila Collins

The 1979-1980 FNA, advised by Mrs. Sankey, consisted of a small group of girls interested in becoming nurses or pursuing some other type of medical career. The girls did volunteer work after school as candy strippers at Wyandot Memorial Hospital. Being a candy striper gave the girls an idea of some of the duties involved in being a real nurse.

Tri-Masque

Front Row: Chris Conley, Charlene Goodman, Jodi Watkins, Amy Leonard, Carla Baker, Jill Courtright, Genny Lucas, Laura Clements, Lisa Bailey Second Row: Lynn Helge, Jenny Eyestone, Alison Walton, Julie Turk, Vicki Althouse, Bev McLaughlin, Lisa Bollinger, Kris Coulter Third Row: Wayne Dennis, Paul Stephans, Chuck Coons, Jeff Kin, Kevin Newell, Jack Leslie

Tri-Masque had a very good year. Many sophomores were invited to join, since eligibility is open to everyone. Meetings were held after school on the third Wednesday of every month. One play and one musical were done for 1980. "The Happiest Millionaire" was performed as the Jr.-Sr. Class Play. "Oklahoma" was chosen as the musical. Both were successful productions. Officers were president — Kris Coulter, vice-president — Lynn Helge, and secretary-treasurer — Wayne Dennis.

FCA

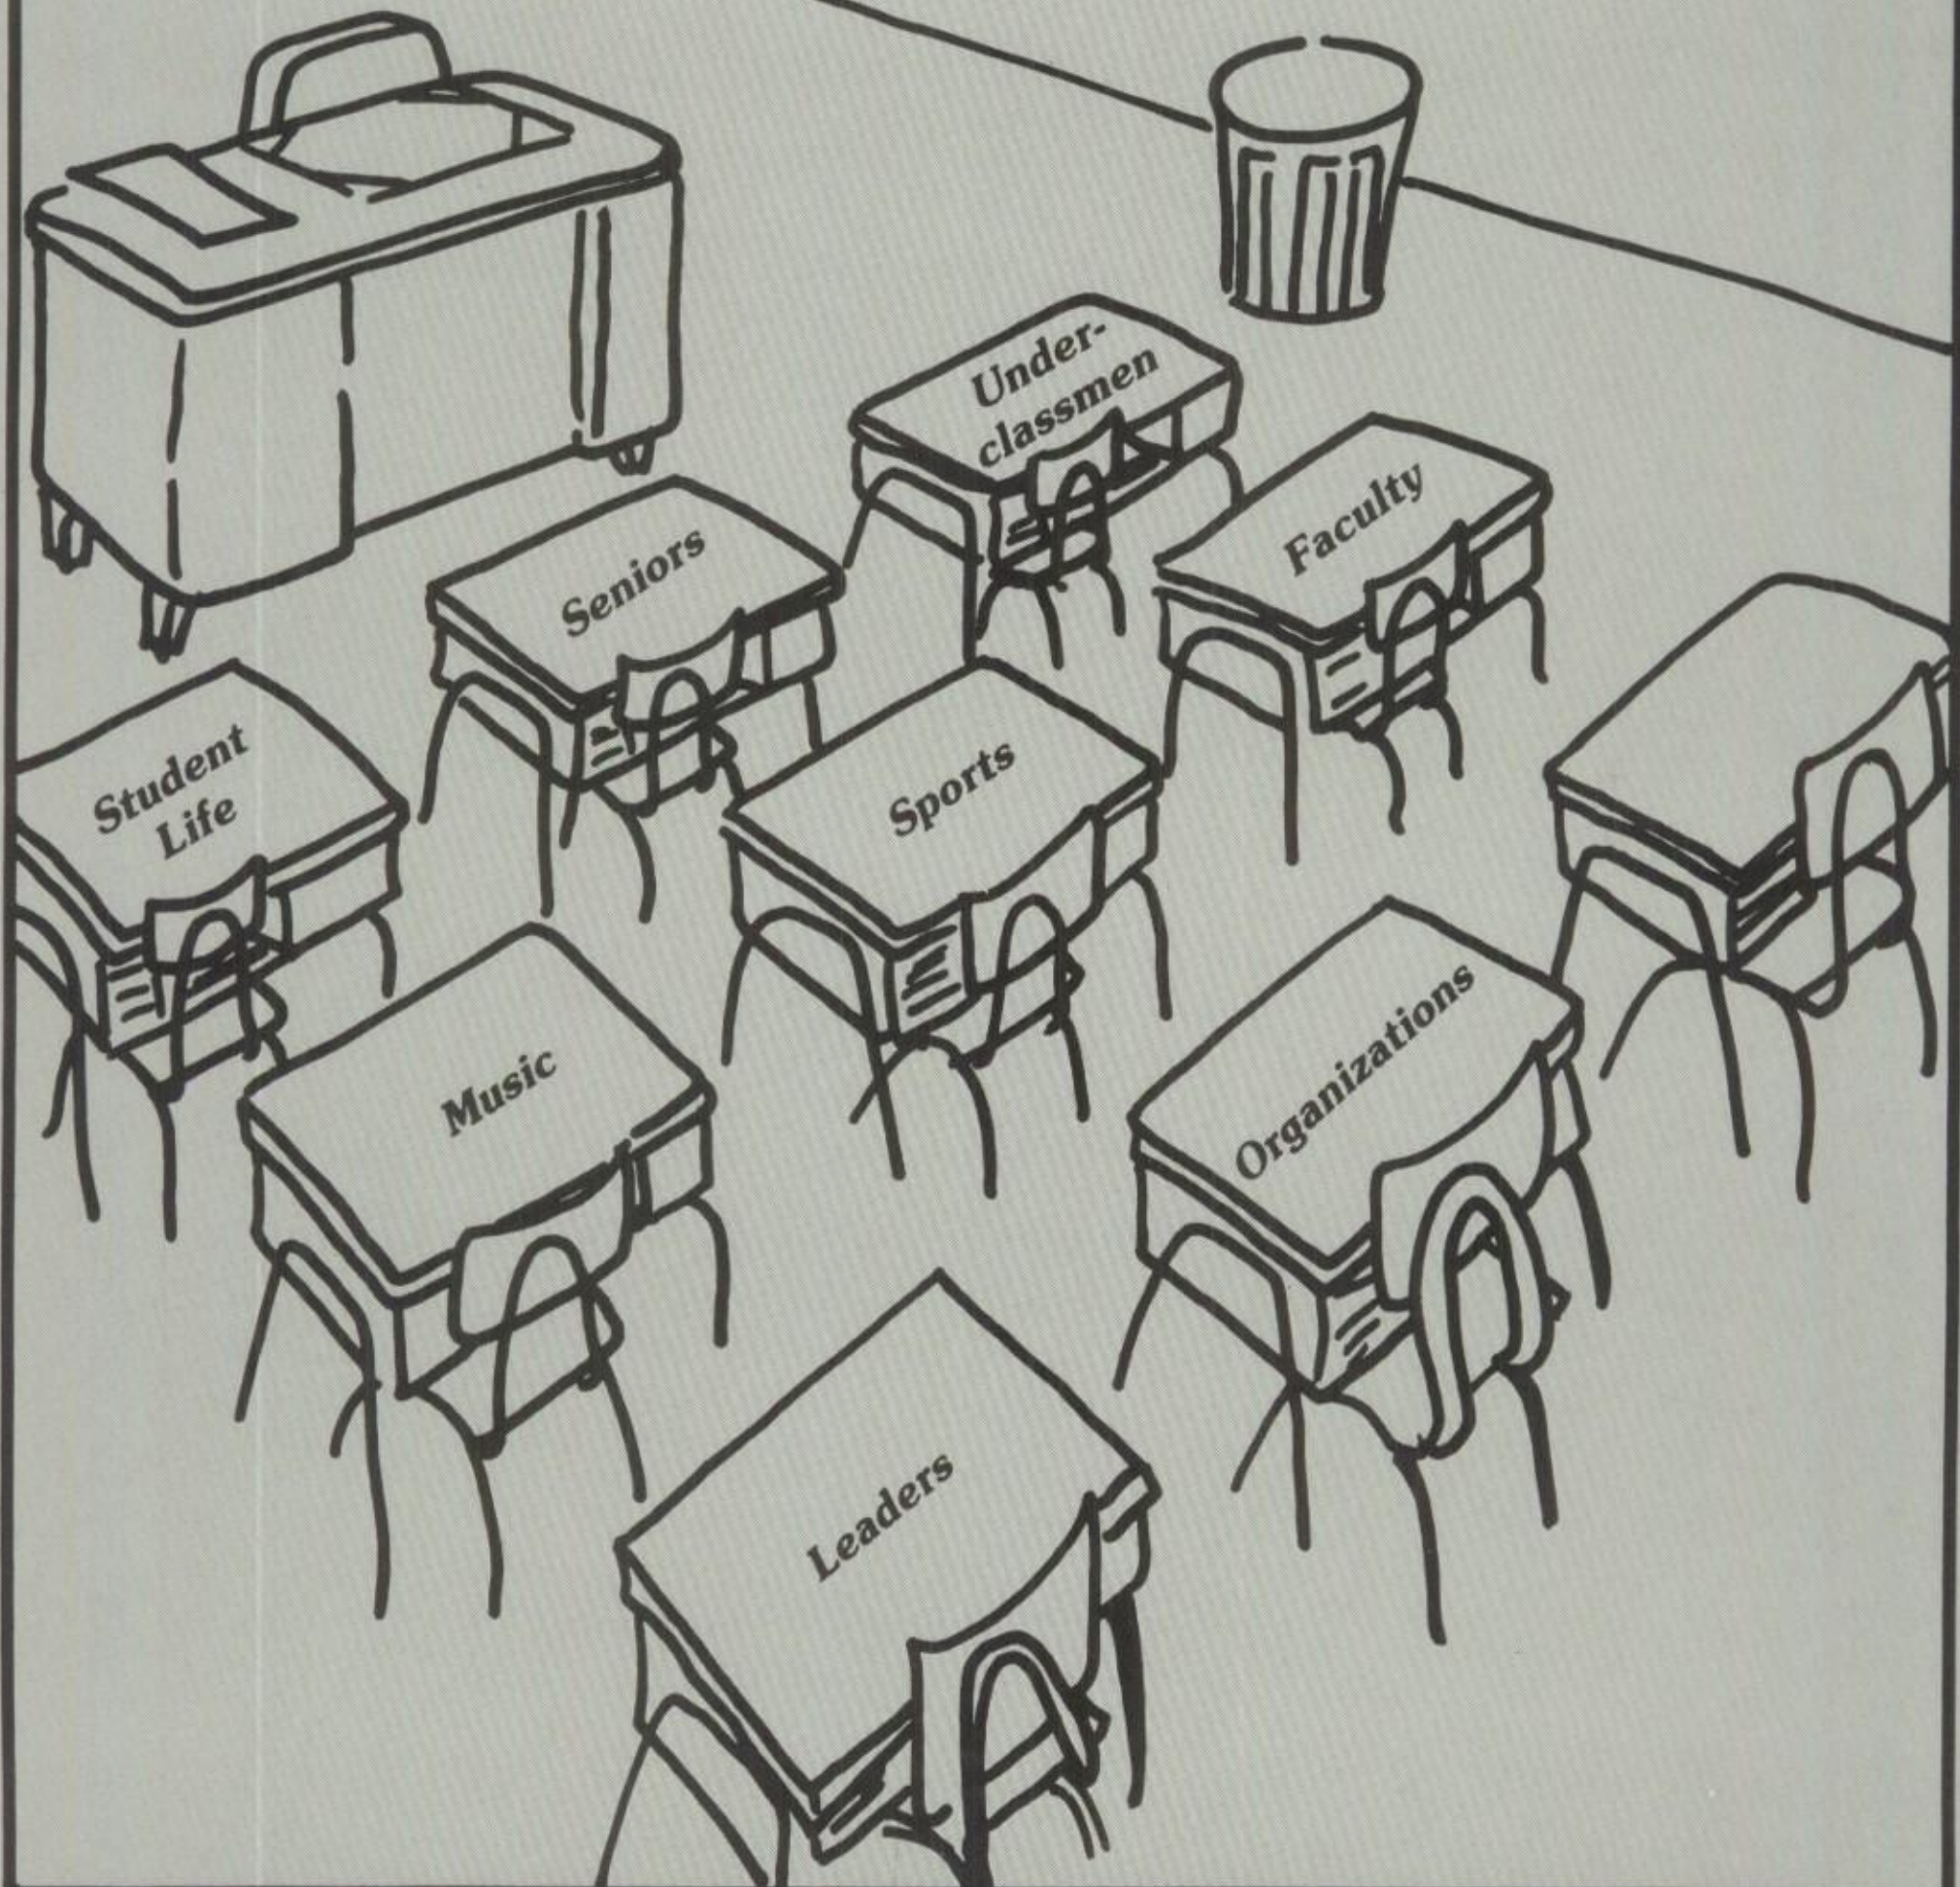

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes provides an important medium for all high school athletes of the Christian faith. The FCA ministry includes sending cards to students or their families in the event of illness or a death, conducting special worship services at various churches, and volunteering aid for the athletic department, high school, and community in any way possible.

FCA meetings consist not only of regular business, but also provide for a fellowship among the athletes where they can discuss their mutual faith, interest in athletics, and any problems they might wish to work out. This aspect of the FCA makes it one of the more unique clubs at USHS.

Front Row: Tony Turley, Jon Yeater, Tim Lautermilch, Kathy Solacoff, Mr. Young
Second Row: Bruce Smythe, Dick Leonard, Sue Quinn, Joan Franz, Deanna Smalley
Third Row: Joelyn Shoup, Karina Frey, Ken Rife, Todd Garber, Kevin Collins, Angie Kinley

'80

This year has proved to be a very busy one for both of us. However, we hope that our other activities have not interfered with making this year's annual accurate and enjoyable. We hope that the mistakes are minimal and that we have covered everything adequately. We would like to thank Mr. Fred Snyder for his time, understanding, and patience without which we could not have produced a successful annual.
